MASS READING REFLECTION

March 25, 2018

1st Reading Is 50: 4-7 [ Christ's Suffering

This reading is taken from the third song of the Servant of Yahweh. As mentioned at the feast of the Baptism of our Lord, it is not clear whom the inspired writer had in mind when he composed these four song's, describing the ideal Servant (Son) of God. Is he a collective person: Israel, God's People? Is he a king of the past or the Messiah (anointed king) to come? In any case, the Christians community applied these hymns very early to Jesus and they are used throughout Holy Week as a beautiful commentary on the passion narratives. Indeed, "the Son of Man [Jesus] did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many" (Mt 20:28)

Read the Responsorial Psalm meditatively applying to the Lord Jesus dying on the cross. 2nd Reading Phil 2:6-11 [ Humility]

This text is actually a Christ hymn, sung in church. It beautifully describes our Lord's utmost humiliation, which he suffered on the cross. By being obedient, he made up for our sinful disobedience. But this hymn sings also of Christ's exaltation by the Father.

Meditating on the Lord's suffering and death, as Christians do during Holy Week, we should keep both sides of the Christ event in mind. It is suffering –and -death that actually constitutes a passage to exaltation.

Good Friday and Easter belong together even in our lives!

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Palm Sunday

Theme: Death and Life

Great people were often controversial figures during their lifetime. It is history, which can look on from a distance and see things in proper perspective, that rectifies the often limited judgment of contemporaries. Something like this has happened to the Lord Jesus. His contemporaries, even his closest coworkers, did not understand him, especially not his strange idea on suffering and death as a necessary passage to a better life. Only later did all of this become clear to them.

Today Christians celebrate Palm Sunday. "For it was to accomplish this mystery [of Christ's Passion and Resurrection] that he entered his own city of Jerusalem" (Procession Rite). The triumphal entry celebrated at the beginning of the passion-week emphasizes that the three elements: suffering, death, and resurrection, belong together. Jesus' death was not a defeat. It was a victory. It is the genuine insight of Christianity that the events of Jesus' earthly life were the execution of God's saving purpose. This genuine insight should be ours also concerning our own lives, when suffering strikes us.

How do you deal with suffering in your life and when you encounter Fellow humans who die in suffering and distress? Paul states: "If we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, …through the death of your Son you have brought us to hope for what we believe, so by his Resurrection…lead us to where you call" (Prayer after Communion).
