

Telemedicine

Beckman Center is proud to be able to use our information technology systems to ensure that patients receive services from a psychiatrist as needed. All clinic locations are connected by an infrastructure that allows a psychiatrist to be physically located in one clinic and provide services to a patient in another location. This is a true partnership between psychiatry and technology.