

For the subject of my talks, Kom el-Nana points to several broader topics. One of them is the gardens of Amarna, for which there is quite a range of evidence.