

"Show Me...Teach Me...My Savior"

Psalm 25:4-5 "Show me your ways, O Lord, teach me your paths; guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my savior, and my hope is in you all day long." Rev. Mark Frith, our LCEF Vision Path facilitator, encouraged our Vision Path team and congregation to read and pray these Bible verses as we seek the Lord's will for our congregation's direction and blessing. These verses are an excellent prayer, but not only for the Vision Path process. They also make an excellent personal plea to our Lord as we begin this year's Lenten season.

"Show me your ways, O Lord," for they are different from my ways. I am sinful by nature and my heart rebels against You. But my ways lead to destruction and death; only Your ways lead me to life everlasting. "Teach me" by Your Word the depth of my weakness and need, so that I repent of my sins and turn to You for deliverance. Then fill me with Your grace and forgiveness, "my Savior," that I may be restored to spiritual life, a life that seeks to please you in my thought, words and actions. Reveal Your will to me, for You only are holy God, and there is no good apart from You. When You guide me by Scripture, Christian counsel and answers to fervent prayers, I will do what is pleasing to You and best for me, Your child. And then I will have hope, strength and joy every day until I see You face to face in Your heavenly mansions. In Your mercy, grant this, dear Jesus. Amen.

Come to our Lenten meals and services this month, that God may feed your body and soul and answer the above prayer for you. Our series topic this year is "Behold the Man," which examines Jesus' taking of a human nature to bear our sins and purchase us back from death and hell to everlasting life. May God our Savior reach, teach and guide you personally this special season of the Church Year.

Your brother and servant in Jesus Christ,

Pastor Bob Deardoff

“Teens Reading the Bible”

A Note from Jarryn

How many of you have a physical copy of the Bible that is a little or maybe a lot worn. Maybe your Bible is marked up, verses flagged or even whole pages, passage underlined or highlighted. Maybe your pages are dog-eared with notes down the sides or maybe you're an artist and have found that pictures speak a thousand words. Which ever best describes your Bible, you know it's been used. But for most teens, their Bibles look a little different. I actually read about this in a article the other day which has odd timing since we have been discussing in youth group how the Bible has something for everyone!

A recent Barna survey revealed that most youth today brand the Bible as boring, confusing, and a source of guilt. For those of us that have spent time in the Bible we know one thing for sure the Bible is far from boring. Now don't get me wrong there are some books that are a whole lot less exciting unless you like genealogy or learning about the rules for the priests, and some people do. To combat what the Barna group found, the article had some tips for us when talking about the Bible.

The first was to frame it as the story of God not just a book of recipes. What they mean is when we read or teach a story from the Bible make it come alive, be a storyteller. Don't just read a story but make sure they know the tone and context of the story.

Secondly invite fearless conversation, don't just assume they understand the story or know what is going on. Even I have found, after stopping them in the middle of a story, that sometimes there has been so many words they have lost what is going on. Ask them questions and not just yes or no questions, invite question or comments.

Lastly, look at the irresistible Jesus. The story of the Bible leads to one person, Jesus Christ and what he did for us. The whole goal of reading the Bible in youth ministry is to show that Jesus is at the center of the whole Bible. The Old Testament points to him and the New Testament shows Him, and shows what our life looks like when we are guided by Him.

Our goal is to get the youth to look at the Bible and see more then just words that are confusing or boring, but to get them to see that the Bible is full of amazing stories that show us Christ and that God always has a plan for you and me. Lead them to WANT to read more. Thank You,

Jarryn Wiley-Pearce

BEAUTIFUL SAVIOR LUTHERAN PRESCHOOL

Our color for this month is GREEN. I love this time of the year. We will be learning about all the things that happen in the spring. We will be going to a family farm and see all the new baby animals.

The Year is going by so fast! We will be having parent teacher conferences. It is always so exciting to see how far all the children have come since the beginning of the year.

We are now taking enrollment forms for the 2019-2020 school year and we will be giving our present families first chance to re-enroll.

If you are interested in enrolling your child for next year, please pick up an enrollment form today. Your place will be reserved upon return of your registration form and a deposit of $25.00

As classroom space is available, students will be accepted as follows:

1. Children re-enrolling after completing the prior school year.
2. Children who have a brother or sister already attending.
3. Children where one or both parents are members of Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church.
4. Others

This order of enrollment will be used until February 22nd 2019, at that time we will be holding an open house and enrollment will be on a first-come, first-serve basis. Classes are limited to 12 students.

LWML Executive Board Minutes

The LWML Executive Board met February 18, 2019 at 5:00 at church. The meeting was conducted by President Vicki Goforth. Present were Alfie Moore, Vicki Goforth, Linda Mueller, Mary Babcock, Thelma Miles, Lisa Parish, Twila Conell, Janet Livingston

Lisa Parish opened with a "Mustard Seed" devotion about using our talents to build God's Kingdom.

The minutes of the January 21 meeting were read and approved. Treasurer Linda Mueller presented the Treasurer's report, reporting that there was a beginning balance of $777.25 and ending balance of $448.34. Mites and membership fees have been submitted.

Human Care chairperson, Thelma Miles, reported that tags are prepared for the Salvation Army food drive service project, with the tags to be made available from March 15 through April 30.

Leader Development – No report

Historian – Twila reported that she has begun the 2019 Historian collection. Vicki Goforth read correspondence. She shared information from Pastor about a "Reaching Young Women for LWML" webinar available on February 21. Vicki read a thank you note from Gift of Hope for the monetary gift received. Vicki also read the challenge issued between LWML Nebraska North and Nebraska South. The mites received nationally for funding the mission programs approved at the 2017 convention is falling short of the goal set at that time. The Presidents of Nebraska South and Nebraska North have challenged women to step up to the challenge of giving more to mites by the end of February. Thelma made a motion to give $100 out of funds for the challenge and also to place the Mites donation box in the back of the church on February 24. Mission project information will be made available. Old Business: Beautiful Savior LWML information and payment have been provided for LWML Nebraska South. The 2019 LWML directory has been printed and placed in member mailboxes.

Ten people were in attendance on February 6 to make centerpieces for the zone rally and had a great time being creative.

New Business: Planning continued for the April 6 Spring Zone Rally. The Rally will be held on April 6 beginning at 10:00 a.m. at Beautiful Savior. Watch for information on the screen and in the bulletin.

Planning also began for the March quarterly meeting to be held on March 18 at 6:00. Information will be made available on the screen and in the bulletin. LWML will serve the March 13 meal with donations to be split between LWML Mites and the North Platte High School store for student needs. The possibility of donating to the General Store used by the residents at Linden Court was discussed as a future service project.

The next Afternoon Circle meeting will be March 14 at 1:00 with Sherry Roehrs hosting at her home. The Evening Circle will meet March 4 at Linden Court with Lisa Parish as leader. Vicki closed the meeting with prayer.

LWML Executive meeting will be March 18 at 5:00 p.m. right before the Quarterly meeting.

Supporting the Ministry Work of the Nebraska District LCMS

Construction is underway to renovate the District offices in Seward and University Chapel on the University of Nebraska-Lincoln campus. We learned last fall from two UNL students about how the ministry work at University Chapel has helped strengthen their relationship with Jesus Christ. The Nebraska District is asking all congregations to lend their support – and Beautiful Savior responded by pledging $35,000 over the next three years. We ask individual members to help us meet this commitment by making a pledge or offering a one-time gift. So far, members of Beautiful Savior have given 17,800.00, and pledges of $2,000.00. Thanks be to God for this generosity. Pledge cards are available in the church office. Please prayerfully consider lending your financial support to assist this important work the District does for all member congregations and for our many ministries here in Nebraska and throughout the world. Please call Kevin Warneke, who is coordinating the campaign for the District, at (402) 612-9151 if you have questions.

BOARD OF OUTREACH MINISTRY MINUTES

February 18, 2019

THESE ARE PRELIMINARY MINUTES SUBJECT TO APPROVAL AT THE NEXT BOARD OF OUTREACH MINISTRY MEETING

Present: Cassie Boeka, Glenn Van Velson, Tara Krupicka

Minutes & Bills: Tara moved to approve minutes, Glenn second, motion approved. Glenn moved and Tara seconded to approve reimbursement of $49.53 to Brent Sinsel for Family Night expenses. Motion passed.

Reports: Christian Family has been going well. Not a high number in attendance, but those who attend have been faithful. The BOOM wishes to thank Colleen Steele for leading a Bible Study as part of this activity, and for the volunteers in the preschool room for the child care. It is hoped that Christian Family Night will continue after Lenten services.

Unfinished Business: The $1,066.39 in "Fan into Flame" funds will be used for evangelism/outreach. When we have a specific need, we will ask the Church Council to approve release of funds.

New Business: The "Easing the Load at the Laundromat" project was discussed. Cassie will call the local laundromats to see if they have any objection to us coming into their place of business and talking with their patrons, and to see which day of the week/time of day has the most traffic on a regular basis. We hope to prepare a description of the project, give some information to share, find some children's books (Arch Books?) to share with children or maybe some coloring books/activities, set a date for the initial action, and then solicit volunteers from the congregation. We discussed planning one event per month, including servant events. The cleanup at Joe & Cindy Mueser's yard was a good start and a great example of how our members are willing to serve. We need to find more projects. Possible projects include spring yard cleanup or window washing; we need to solicit these opportunities from the congregation. We will use the bulletin, announcements, Newsletter and the screens up front to solicit more projects.

These servant projects need a name; suggestions were Be a Blessing (BaB), Acts of Love (AOL), Random Acts of Kindness (RAK), Acts of Christian Love (ACL). Final decisions need to be made.

Tabled Items: Web page design and discussion of "Confirmands: Where are they now?" Possible future projects: Octaball Court; Storage Shed; Orphan Grain Train/Mercy Meals; Corn hole toss tournament; talent contest; hospitality teams. Brent will be putting together a proposal for Hospitality Teams.

We need to find what it will take to build an Octaball court and get information about what is needed. Youth could bring friends to youth group/Sunday School, etc. to play afterwards.

'Everyone His Witness' program will be reviewed by Brandon and then we will need to determine the details for our congregation.

Adjourn with prayer led by Cassie.
