

Conference Workshop Overview:

Day 1 Treatment of Childhood Abuse and Trauma

This workshop will explore an integrative approach to using play therapy with victims of childhood abuse and trauma. Research and literature describing trauma's impact on the brain, treatment of posttraumatic stress, and trauma-informed treatment will be reviewed. The use of posttraumatic play and directive play therapy interventions will be discussed. Lecture, experiential activities, group discussion, & case examples will provide participants with a comprehensive learning experience

Day 2 Integrative Play Therapy for Sexually Traumatized Children and Adolescents

This workshop will emphasize using play therapy with victims of sexual abuse and trauma. Frameworks for conceptualizing the impact of sexual abuse, treatment components from evidence-based practice models, & play therapy will be integrated to create abuse-informed interventions that are developmentally appropriate & clinically sound. Attendees will receive a variety of directive play therapy interventions which address core components of sexual abuse treatment including psychoeducation, emotional expression, cognitive coping, & trauma narration. Lecture, experiential activities, group discussion & case examples will provide participants with a comprehensive learning experience.

Ethics Workshop Overview:

Ethical Use of Self-Disclosure

Use of self-disclosure is an issue that every therapist will face. It is a complex issue that presents itself in obvious and subtle ways and has great potential for both benefit and harm. Why, when, what and how much to disclose are important questions that therapists need to consider so that they can be intentional in their practice and avoid ethical pitfalls.

NOTE: This program offers 1.00 contact hour. Participants are responsible for checking with their state regulatory board to determine if the program meets regulations for "ethics" hours.

Skill Level: This program is appropriate for professionals of beginner to intermediate advanced skill level.
