Dear Folks, England

Christmas has done been and went and things are beginning to cheer up a bit again. It was shonuff gloomy over the holiday, though. Guess everyone was busy thinking of how much more they'd rather be someplace else. Now well build up for New Year's I suppose and get down in the dumps again.

Guess you're reading the newspapers as to what is happening in these parts, so I don't need to worry about telling you. I couldn't, anyway.

Jean's letters keeps me going nowadays. I'm glad many times over that we didn't wait till after the scrap is over. Now I know what I have to go back to, - and I like it!

Tell everyone hello and give Peggylenn a big kiss for me.
 Love to all,
 Bub
