

A CATHOLIC CONFESSION CALLED LUTHERANISM

La Sagrada Familia Church, is a community that believes, confesses and lives according to the promises of God Our Lord, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

La Sagrada Familia Church confesses with a high voice its roots in the Church founded on the apostles: a Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church. The catholicity of our Church is founded on the ancient councils of the Church. It is Catholic because it maintains the traditions and its confessions: Nicene Creed, Apostolic Creed and the Athanasian Creed.

La Sagrada Familia Church is a church of Synod of Phoenix, Arizona of the Lutheran Church ELCA the Grand Canyon. The Catholic reform began in the sixteenth century by an Augustinian monk named Martin Luther who like others did not want to leave the Roman Catholic Church but to advocate changes within the existing structure. The desire of Father Martin Luther was for the church to return to its original purity condition. This is known as the Lutheran Church or the Reformed Catholic Church, which is not linked to Rome. The Lutheran Church is a Catholic Reformation movement. It is totally ecumenical, liturgical and walks around the celebration of the sacraments.

MISSION OF LA SAGRADA FAMILIA CHURCH

Our Mission and Ministry strive to proclaim, by word and deed, the Good News of the Gospel; bear witness to the presence of Christ among us; work and pray for the strengthening of the Church and live our faith at the level of sons and daughters of God committed to put the gifts of the Holy Spirit at the service of our congregation.

THE HOLY MASS (CONFESSION OF AUGSBURG, ART. 24)

La Sagrada Familia Church preserves the Solemn Holy Mass and high liturgy. The use of incense, candles and holy water, as well as the procession, priestly vestments, are an essential part of the Holy Mass in our Church. The Holy Family Church faithfully maintains the ancient Lutheran rites and its priests wear clerical collar all the time as a visible part of the priestly vocation.

The Lesser Catechism of Father Martin Luther recommends that the faithful approach Confession and Absolution regularly. The priests are available before and after Mass

MARRIED PARISH PRIEST AND WOMEN IN THE CHURCH

In the Lutheran Church their clerics are allowed to marry and most of them have their own families, who actively participate in the life of the church. That is why it is promoted and affirmed that holy matrimony is a blessing for priests. The Lutheran movement has respected the leadership of women as lay leaders and as clerics ordained for more than 20 years and will continue to respect their rights and value the gifts that women bring to the service of our Church. We declare and affirm that our Churches train and accommodate those who are called by God and who are recognized and supported by their local parish. These leaders must affirm, proclaim, and preach Lutheran theology in accordance with the faith of the Church, respecting catholicity as tradition and practice. These responsibilities are equitable with those of the male leaders “Prohibited to make copies, of this material with different interest to preach the Gospel and to know our Parish the Holy Family Church (ELCA) “.

DEVOTION TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mother of God and Mother of the Church.

The evangelizing function of our lady in the life of the church has been manifested from the beginning of the Christian community. The history of the people of God reflects the love that the children of God have always professed to the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Blessed Virgin Mary, worthy of the highest honors, "always Virgin", "always Holy", chosen in the triumphant church to intercede in prayer for all generations "Theotokos, Mother of God". Father Martin Luther said "A person can be proud of such a treasure as the Virgin Mary, you can sit on her lap and become her beloved son". The veneration of the Blessed Virgin Mary is part of the faith of the La Sagrada Familia church.
