

Keith C. Staudohar
Project Manager

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

- Certified Professional in Erosion & Sediment Control
- Certified Professional in Storm Water Quality

EXPERIENCE

Keith has been with Cronin Engineering, P.E., P.C. for 32 years and currently holds the title of project manager. He brings extensive experience to the firm in the areas of Residential Land Development, Commercial Site Development, Planning, Surveying, Utility Design, Stormwater Management & Public Representation.

Professional Experience relating to the following:

- Design & permitting of Residential Site Plans
- Design & permitting of Commercial Pools
- Commercial Site Planning including utility design & grading
- Design of large & small subdivisions
- Analysis of large and small watersheds
- Stormwater Pollution Prevention & Erosion Control
- Environmental Impact Statements
- Development Inspections & SWPPP Inspections

SPECIALIZED SKILLS

Keith possesses extensive knowledge of all aspects of residential & commercial development. Mr. Staudohar has a strong ability to represent projects to the public & reviewing agencies with efficiency and ease. Mr. Staudohar also possesses a strong understanding of HydroCAD.

EDUCATION

Keith possesses a Bachelor of Science Degree in Physical Geography from the State University of New York at Plattsburgh. He also minored in Environmental Planning & Environmental Science.