

Summer Reading List

Directions: Please select and read at least two books from your respective grade level. Your teacher may ask you to write a short summary of these books when you return to school in the fall. Each book's title and ISBN number is included to help you locate the work online or at the library (exact editions are not required.). Several books are available for free on the Amazon Kindle application, and many books will be found for free at the public library. We wish you a happy summer with wonderful adventures in reading!
