

HOW PRICING WORKS

Bridal henna depends on the type of design you want. The size, detail and intricacy determines how much your bridal henna will cost. The most basic type of bridal henna is $60.00 which includes both hands both sides and both feet (sample image on page 6). Ideally if you can send us an image of the type of design you want we can quote you much accurately. You can choose from a wide selection of styles that our artists have created or if there is something that you stumble across elsewhere. We can use any image as inspiration and create something original for you.

BRIDAL PARTY HENNA (BRIDESMAIDS, GUESTS AND OTHER FAMILY)

For a simple design (as shown in the image →→→) it is $5 per hand per side. Often times the really close members of the family like the sister, mother, mother in law etc. will want to get heavier designs. For fuller designs price starts at $10 per hand per side.

If you look at the images below, you will get an idea of the difference between an intricate and not so intricate bridal design. Images on the left are more spaced out and have more bolder designs. For something like this you can expect to pay $130-150. For images on the right that are far more extensive, also known as Rajhistani designs, you are looking at about $250-300.

WHAT HENNA DO WE USE?

We guarantee the darkest stain possible for your skin. And for that reason, we only use the freshest crop and the most authentic essential oils. We make fresh batches of henna every week in the summer season and every two weeks in the winter months. Our henna powder is imported from Rajasthan, India.

WHEN SHOULD YOU DO YOUR HENNA

A huge indicator of natural henna is that it develops on your skin over time. We recommend that you do your henna 48 hours prior to your main event. As indicated in the image, your stain will come in its full bloom around 48 hours. If you have a turmeric ceremony (also known as Haldi, Dying ceremony or Mayan) it is recommended that the henna be applied after because turmeric is a natural exfoliant and it WILL lighten the stain.

TRIAL AND CONSULTATION

It is highly recommended that the bride come in for a consultation. This will allow the Artist and the Bride to choose a design, talk about details of the event and also get a free trial to see the stain our henna paste. Especially brides who have had bad henna stains in the past would benefit greatly and there will be no surprises on the actual day. There are two locations that we currently conduct consultations at :

5580 Cortina Cres, Mississauga ON, L4Z 3R2
1386 Gerrard street, Toronto, M4L 2A1

PACKAGES

Once you choose your bridal design, you can inform us of the approximate number of people for your henna party and we can work out a package deal. There may or may not be a travel charge based on the location you want the artist to commute to. However, if there are more than a certain number of people, that charge can be waived. We recommend our clients to book all their henna events with us (bride and groom side) to get the best possible deal.

SAMPLE DESIGNS WITH PRICING

We firmly believe that we can work with ANY budget and create what you desire. When we are asked the question “why are you charging more for design x and less for design y?” Our answer is simple. “the details determine the price” Some designs may look full and heavy but they may not be as intricate and others. Similarly some designs may have more negative spaces but are extremely concentrated in certain areas. Below are some examples to give you an idea of what different styles of designs look like with their corresponding prices.

Simple Bridal henna for both hands both sides and feet $80

Semi intricate Mid-way to the elbow and up to the ankles. Both hands front and back and both feet $110

Intricate on the hands 4 inches above the wrist and simple designs on the feet up to the ankle $140

Arabic designs heavy on the palms, spaced out on the back and simple on the feet $160 intricate 4 inches above the wrist and 4 inches above ankles $180

Semi intricate up to the elbows and 4 inches below the knees $250

Intricate hands above the elbow and Feet up to the ankle $450-500

BOOK WITH US

The booking process is quite simple. There is a deposit required based on the package that you choose. Once all the details have been decided and you are ready to go ahead with the booking, we will draft up a contract and send it over. Upon receiving that, you be required to look over it and make any amendments that you want. If everything looks good, you simply send the deposit and your booking is confirmed.
