DISTRICT REPORTS

District 1: Report by Shane H. Every position in the district is filled and most have alternates. Principles Above Personalities seems to help with service. Alateen meeting is going on in the district. Also, the Gulf Coast LDC will soon be located in the district.

District 2: Report by Mary E. This district sponsored the assembly this time, and meets about every three months. They recently asked WSO for help with participation and found their advice was beneficial. Participation is the key to harmony, and it works if you work it.

District 3: Report by Betty O. Susan is the DR and is active. There are five groups in the district which are active. Two groups are very large. Tradition One helps keep unity in the district. Biggest problem is that no one wants to do service past the group level, although all groups have been generous enough to pay for DR to go to the assembly.

NEW LITERATURE

JUST FOR TONIGHT

Just for tonight, I will be grateful. I will give thanks for the past day—its failures as well as its successes, its sadness as well as its joy and its pain as well as its pleasure. I will take comfort in knowing that every event and circumstance that occurred today can be used for my good and the good of others.

Just for tonight, I will accept that I have done the best I could, remembering that my goal is spiritual progress and not perfection. I will let go of any expectation I had for this day, as well as any disappointment, shame or guilt I felt for not being perfect today.

Just for tonight, I will be humble. I will give my shortcomings to a Power greater than myself, trusting that doing so can bring about changes in me that I could not bring about by myself.

District 4: Report by Leigh R. Jennifer M. is the DR. The district is starting a new group in Madison with Alateen also as a possibility. They have new officers in the district and support the WSO. They have suggested a speaker panel on service in Alanon.

District 5: No report

District 6: Report by DR. Three meetings have been held since the fall assembly. Outreach is the focus at this time and "Alanon Faces Alcoholism" pamphlets have been given out to each of the seven groups in the district. 180 letters were mailed so far to attorneys, barber shops, beauty salons, bail bondsmen, and churches with only 18 having been returned as undeliverable. Groups in the district have paid for the stamps and the envelopes to do this outreach. Each letter was accompanied by some literature and all literature is stamped with the local Alanon phone number and the Mississippi AFG website. We hope to increase participation with this outreach. Also, a new group was started since November so we say we have seven groups that meet eight days a week! Since the gulf coast LDC coordinator has resigned the LDC is closed until April. The new coordinator is Selinda G. and the LDC will be operating out of the Ocean Way clubhouse in Long Beach. This is in District One. District Six is responsible for the next Assembly which is September 14 at this same facility Start time will be determined by the AWSC.

District 7: No known report, no DR

COORDINATORS REPORTS

Betty O. agreed to be the forum and literature coordinator.

Beth S. agreed to be Public Outreach.

District Seven has no DR or GRs. Patty B. (Secretary) will work with the Group Records coordinator to analyze the situation.

AREA WORLD SERVICE COMMITTEE (AWSC)

The primary function of the AWSC is to plan for the general improvement of both the Assembly & the groups. Voting members of this committee are usually the officers of the Assembly, the DRs, Coordinators of services (such as Alateen, Archives, Public Outreach (Public Information, Cooperating with the Professional Community, & Institutions), Literature, Group Records, Forum or Newsletter), & liaison members from any Information Services (Intergroups). The Chairman of Al-Anon/Alateen activities at an A.A. area convention or Chairman of Area Al-Anon & Alateen Conventions should also participate in AWSC meetings.

These meetings, called & chaired by the Area Chairman, may be held at stated intervals to hear and discuss the Delegate's report, to consider Area matters, to suggest items of interest for the Area newsletter, all with the purpose of informing and unifying the groups in the Area. To equalize travel expenses, successive meetings may be held in various localities within the Area.

Throughout the year, the AWSC is responsible for submitting questions that cannot be resolved at the district or Assembly level to the WSO. It also plans the Assembly agenda, prepares the Area budget, and studies the need for alternatives to these "World Service Handbook" suggestions and presents its finding to the Area Assembly.

When advisable, the AWSC suggests revisions of boundaries of existing districts to be approved at the Area Assembly.

When Al-Anon & Alateen groups are to participate in an A.A. or Al-Anon convention, a separate convention planning committee may be formed, using the talents of the membership as a whole. To assure liaison with the convention planning committee, a convention Chairman may be appointed or elected by the AWSC. He is responsible to the Area and submits reports to the Area Chairman.

All Al-Anon/Alateen members, except those who are also members of A.A., are eligible to serve as an Area Coordinator. Guidelines for Area Coordinators are available from the WSO or on the WSO Member's website. (2014-2017 Al-Anon/Alateen Service Manual, pp 162-63)

FROM THE DELEGATE'S DESK

My first World Service Conference

I remember the moment at World Service Conference I heard Terry T., a fellow delegate from Alaska say, "being a delegate was like pouring Miracle Gro on my program." That perfectly describes my experience since agreeing to stand for delegate last fall. In my 5-1/2 years in Al-Anon I have always said yes to service, starting as Treasurer of my home group, then Group Rep, then District Rep. In considering whether I would stand for delegate or any other service position, I'm grateful my Higher Power always urges me on even though I don't have a clue what I'm doing at the time!

As delegate I'm still learning and expect that will be the case during the next 2-1/2 years of my term. It is exactly what I need for my program and for my life. At one time I owned a company and had a lot of "executive" skills but by the time I came into recovery I had lost the company and all my skills. Each step of the way in service I have regained skills and most importantly, my self-esteem, my self-confidence, and my "voice". After living with the disease for 33 years I could hardly put a sentence together and felt I would shortly be in a mental hospital when I walked into my first meeting. The first day of Conference my mentor encouraged me to get up to the microphone and state my opinion when the moderator asked for comments. I could never have imagined 5-1/2 years ago that I would be the first delegate walking up to the "mike", confident and eager to share.

Most of the stories I had heard about being delegate were about how much work it requires. As I prepared to go to World Service Conference, I worried about whether I could handle it. I also obsessed about what to wear and how I was going to be able to keep up with the other delegates, many who had been in the program and done service much longer than I had or had the luxury of preparing for several years while serving as alternate delegate.

Finally, the night before leaving I was able to truly "Let Go and Let God". I told my Higher Power that if He had put me in this position then He must be capable of providing whatever I would need along the way. The next day He showed up and took care of the smallest of details, encouraging me that He would be there for the big ones to come. Here are just two examples:

By the time I got to the Memphis airport, my flight had been delayed which turned into the first blessing. One thing I hadn't had time to do before leaving was polish my shoes. Most likely, no one else would notice but my dad always told me, "if you wear clean shoes it shows you care". Approaching my gate, I noticed a shoeshine stand right next door. I asked the gentleman how long it took to get a shoeshine and he replied, "7 minutes". I had 9 minutes before boarding so was able to start my trip polished and ready to tackle the day!

My second flight was also late, and we sat on the tarmac so long I didn't have time to stop to eat as I ran toward my gate. I have learned to use HALT and could feel the hunger coming on but with no option to take care of myself---or so I thought. Just as I made it to the gate an announcement was made that anyone in line could have a free sandwich and chips from the cart they had just wheeled into the boarding area! Those two small instances assured me I was not alone on this journey.

During the Welcome to Conference it was stated that one of the Board's goals was that the Conference would have a spiritual tone. I felt it from the first meeting of the first day where we had three countries represented around our one table and although I can't speak French or Spanish, our connection to each other was immediate. Just meeting more than 100 joyful "sisters" and "brothers" in the program who encouraged me every step of the way every day was transformative and hearing the stories of each outgoing delegate strengthened our common bonds. Laughter infusing every business discussion and presentation, no matter how serious, and crying as I opened love notes and love gifts from other delegates and from all of you back home-----all of this makes being a delegate a truly life-changing experience and it's why I wish every member could experience the gift of serving as delegate. It will probably be time for me to step down about the time I'm getting the hang of this position, but I am so grateful for the awesome privilege to represent you and all the other members in Mississippi.

In loving service,

Jennifer M.
