

EXAMPLE OF A TYPICAL MEETING

After determining that a quorum is present, the presiding officer rises, waits or signals for quiet and says, "The meeting will come to order."

Opening Ceremonies: Based on the group, religious, patriotic, and customary rituals may be included. If given, the invocation, the National Anthem, and the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States are arranged in that order. Inspirational messages follow patriotic exercises.

Roll Call (If customary): The chair states, "The secretary will call the roll of members."

Reading and Approval of Minutes: After the minutes are read, or if they have been previously distributed, the chair asks, "Are there any corrections to the minutes?" (Pause) "If there are none, the minutes are approved as written." With any corrections, "The secretary will make the corrections. If there are no further corrections, the minutes are approved as corrected."

Reports of Officers, Boards, Standing and Special Committees: Called on only if they have reports to make.

- Officers, boards, and standing committees report in the order they are listed in the bylaws. Special committees report in the order in which they were created.
- A treasurer's report is never adopted; instead a financial review or auditor's report is adopted annually.
- If an officer's report contains a recommendation, another member can make a main motion following the report to adopt the recommendation.
- Committee chairmen may make motions for recommendations contained in their reports.

Special Orders: Announced only if there are such items or matters required by the bylaws for a meeting. For example, "The secretary will read from the Bylaws Article_ Section_ concerning the election of a nominating committee."

Unfinished Business and General Orders: Announced only if there are such items (matters previously introduced but not finished at the prior meeting) or items postponed by way of motion to the next meeting.

New Business: The chair takes up any new business that is listed on the approved agenda. The chair then asks, "Is there any new business?" or "Is there any further new business?"

Announcements: "The chair has the following announcements... Are there any other announcements?"

Program: The chair does not "turn the meeting over," but announces, "The program committee will now present the program..." Or "...will introduce our speaker."

Adjournment: "Is there any further business?" (Pause) "Since there is no further business, the meeting is adjourned." Or "A motion to adjourn is in order."

PROCEDURE FOR HANDLING A MAIN MOTION

What is Happening/Notes	The Chair Says/Does	Members Say/Do
Obtaining and assigning the floor
A member rises when no one else has the floor		"Mr./Madame President/Chairman"
	Recognizes the member by name, title or nodding
How the motion is brought before the assembly
Member sits after		"I move that (or "I'o"),..."
Another member believes the motion is worth discussing		"I second the motion" or just "Second"
"Is there any debate?" is a less formal alternative to "Are you ready for the question?"	"It is moved and seconded that (or "to") ... Are you ready for the question?"
Consideration of the motion
See rules for debate (sidebar)		Debate
The chair puts the question to a vote of the assembly
	"Are you ready for the question?"	Further debate
After debate is ended, or if the formal motion Previous Question has been moved and adopted to stop debate, a vote is taken	"The question is on the adoption of the motion that ..." "Those in favor of the motion, say aye." (Pause) "Those opposed say no." (Pause)	Members vote
The chair announces the results of the vote
	"The ayes have it, the motion is adopted, and ... (indicating the effect of the vote or ordering its execution)." OR "The noes have it and the motion is lost."

PRINCIPLES UNDERLYING PARLIAMENTARY LAW

As stated in Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised, rules of parliamentary law balance the rights of individuals or groups within an organization's total membership. These rules are based on a regard for the rights:

- of the majority,
- of the minority, especially a strong minority greater than one third,
- of individual members,
- of absentees, and
- of all these together.

Ultimately the will of the majority decides matters, but only after full and free discussion. The rights of all (even those absent) must be protected. This pamphlet will help you run meetings more efficiently and effectively and help protect the rights of all members.

RULES FOR DEBATE

1. Members first obtain the floor.
2. The maker of the motion may speak first.
3. Debate is made to the chair; it is confined to the merits of the motion and not the motives or personalities of other members.
4. Amendments may be offered to improve the motion. They must be approved by the body, and the motion must still be adopted as amended.
5. Debate can be closed only by the assembly (2/3 vote) or by the chair if no one seeks the floor for further debate.

PERTINENT FACTS

- A main motion brings business before the assembly.
- A subsidiary motion assists the assembly in treating or disposing of a main motion.
- A privileged motion deals with matters of immediate importance. It does not relate to the pending business.
- An incidental motion is related to the parliamentary situation so that it must be decided before business can proceed.

MEANING OF SYMBOLS

- # Main motion when no other motion is pending.
- I In order when another has the floor; may interrupt.
- S Requires a second.
- D Is debatable.
- D Can be amended.
- A Requires a majority vote (i.e. more than half of votes cast).
- M Requires a 2/3 vote (twice as many in the affirmative as in the negative).
- N Usually no vote is taken; the chair decides.
- + No vote; chair responds.
- N Vote may be reconsidered.
- R See Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised, current edition, for specific rules.

1 TYPES OF AMENDMENTS

- To insert (within) or add (at the end of a sentence or paragraph) a word, consecutive words, or paragraph.
- To strike out a word, consecutive words, or a paragraph.
- To strike out and insert (which applies to words) or to substitute (which is applied to at least a paragraph of one or more sentences.)
- To strike out a word or paragraph and insert it in a different place.

RANKING MOTIONS

Motions on this page are listed in rank order, with the highest ranking at the top. After a motion has been stated by the chair, higher ranking motions are in order but not lower ranking motions except that Amend and Previous Question can be applied to amendable and/or debatable motions of higher rank than themselves.

NOTES

<sup>2</sup> Before a motion has been stated by the chair, it can be withdrawn or modified by the maker. After it has been stated by the chair, it can be withdrawn or modified only by unanimous consent or by a majority vote of the assembly.

<sup>3</sup> An Incidental Main Motion which usually requires a majority vote with previous notice, a 2/3 vote without previous notice, or a majority vote of the entire assembly/membership.

4. Hasty or ill-advised action can be corrected through the motion to Reconsider. This motion can be made only by one who voted on the prevailing side and made only on the same day the original vote was taken. In a session of more than one day, a reconsideration can also be moved on the next succeeding day within the session on which the meeting is held.

FORMS OF VOTING

- A voice vote is the most commonly used form of voting (yexes and noes).
- A rising vote is the normal method of voting on motions requiring a 2/3 vote for adoption. It is also used to verify a voice vote or a vote by show of hands. The chair can order a rising vote or a single member can call for a Division of the Assembly.
- A show of hands is an alternative for a voice vote, sometimes used in small boards, committees, or very small assemblies, or for a rising vote in very small assemblies, but only if no member objects.
- Some conventions use voting cards, provided to delegates, to raise for voting.
- A count can be ordered by the chair or by a majority vote of the assembly.
- Unanimous consent is a vote of silent agreement without any objection.
- A ballot or roll call vote can be ordered by a majority of the assembly.
