

Eboni Ketcham

Eboni was born and raised in Queens, New York. Eboni's love of dance started at a later age. At the age of 12 she took her first dance class and from there the passion grew. Eboni has been trained in ballet, jazz, tap, and lyrical. Priority of her later intensive training is in ballet, and it just so happens to be her favorite. Eboni enjoys Musical Theatre, and has been in many productions during her high school career. Eboni currently still enjoys training and taking class to constantly improve in her dancing, and because she just loves it so much! Eboni started teaching last year and has loved it ever since! She currently is a member of the NDEO (National Dance Education Organization) and is apart of the OPDI program. Eboni can't wait to start her teaching journey and learning with the Next Step Dance family and to share her passion and have fun many kids.
