

Upton Gains Two EMTs

New Upton Emergency Medical Technicians (EMTs) are (l-r) Amy Cook and Kelly Wozney. The women completed their training in the last few months and comprise the whole of Upton's team. Conversations during the Upton Town Council meetings about offering EMT training locally have been ongoing the last two months. The community is fortunate to have these ladies volunteer for this extremely important service.