From the Pastoral Associate Are we ready? Yes. No. Hope so. Maybe so. Ready as we can be. Before the important decision or event, school openings, planting, harvesting, marriage, career changes, move, baby, priesthood, college, seminary life, new job, Covid 19, we may have been asked this or asked it ourselves. Chances are before this question there has been a lot of planning, discussion, maybe even change in direction or a shift in priorities, or personal growth. If the Lord has not been included in the process our answer should be no. Before each endeavor it is best to ask the Lord to guide us. It is His will we are supposed to be doing. During the hectic preparation it is best to keep praying for enlightenment by the Holy Spirit. We want the flow of wisdom and prudence constantly in our mind and heart. This way we hear the quiet voice. We have courage to speak the truth. We have the humility to listen to others who have their wisdom and experience and see things that we may not see. Even near the end of the prayerful discernment and preparation, it is best to step back and ask the Lord His permission to move forward, or ask Him to correct our direction if He would prefer us to go another way. If we have included our loving Father in the whole process, then I think we can say, “Yes, with the Lord at our side, we are ready.” This of course is true of the biggest event of all, the transition through death to the afterlife. Are we ready? The process above may give us the answer. ~~~ Michael Pekar

We hope you join us for this great opportunity to grow in faith and fellowship. Feel free to contact Amy at amy.schlichting11@gmail.com with any questions.

Saint John's School of Theology and Seminary: The Journey of Loss and Grief. When Jesus' friend Lazarus dies, the Gospel of John tells us that "Jesus wept" (Jn 11:35). We experience many losses in our lives and the death of someone we love is just one of them. Grief is a normal response to loss, yet grief is chaotic and hard, so much so that we want to avoid it. But grief is the only way through loss. How can we better understand the journey of grief and how to take it in a faithful way? How does God call us to grieve and, finally, from our grief? Sunday, Sept. 20, Webinar presentation from 12:00 - 2:00 pm. Free event. Registration is required: www.collegevilleMN.com/theologyday, 320-363-3560 or theologyday@csbsju.edu.
