

Applications Extended for Outstanding Civics Teacher Award

It's not too late - submit your application today! Applications will be accepted until 4 p.m. Tuesday, December 1, 2009.

This award, established by the President of the Louisiana State Bar Association in partnership with the Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education, is given annually to one or more Louisiana teachers in recognition of their law related education work.

Recipients of this prestigious award will be recognized at an evening reception in early 2010 during the Louisiana State Bar Association's annual Midyear Meeting at the Marriott Convention Center in New Orleans.

Details on President's Award for Outstanding Civics Teacher...

Seven Day Teachers' Summer Institute to Be Held at LSU Law School

Go back to college! Experience the college atmosphere and camaraderie and receive instruction from expert scholars and mentors that will prepare you to be the top in your field!

- July 24 - 31, 2010
- Attend classes at LSU Law School
- On campus apartment housing and meals
- Free textbooks and teacher's guide
- All at no cost to participants

This is an intensive seven-day social studies teachers' training program. Scholars and mentors are brought in from all over the country. Teachers' workshops on classroom implementation of the nationally recognized We the People civics program are provided each day. Open for elementary, middle and secondary teachers.

Mark your calendar! Applications will be available soon. Enrollment is limited.

November 2009

Louisiana Center
Law and Civic Education

The Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education is a non profit 501(c)(3) organization. It is the educational arm of the Louisiana State Bar Association. It is financially assisted, in part, by the Interest on Lawyers Trust Accounts program through the Louisiana Bar Foundation, federal organizations, and by generous private contributions.

Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education

601 St. Charles Avenue

New Orleans, LA 70130

LIC Presentations on "Street Law" and "How to Prepare for College"

LIC (Lawyers in the Classroom) Attorneys Adreja Boutte and Cherrell Simms visited with students of Jacob Purkins and Jake McDonald at G.W. Carver High School in New Orleans.

A Street Law presentation addressed, among other things, the importance of articulation and positive attitude. Boutte and Simms also met with an assembly of Carver advanced placement students for discussion on how to prepare for college. Part of the presentation addressed the financial and academic concerns of the students.

Phone (504) 610-0134

Fax (504) 566-0930

www.lalce.org

Lawyers in the Classroom (LIC)

Attention Teachers!

If you would like a member of the legal community to visit your classroom, email Kandis Showalter with your name, school, address, grade level and contact information. If you have a specific topic you wish addressed and know the date and time you would like to have a presentation, include that information with your contact information.

The LCLCE will set up an in class room presentation conducted by legal professionals who have volunteered to work with students in your area.

Attorney Job Openings

The Louisiana State Bar Association has a current listing of job opportunities in the legal field. To view these opportunities click here.