Re: Deficiency Notice Pursuant to FINRA Rule 6490
E-Debit Global Corporation – CAS-58012-Q2J0W2
Company-Related Notification Relating to Proposed 1-300 Reverse Stock Split request

Dear Ms. Dreyer:

Pursuant to FINRA Rule 6490, FINRA's Department of Market Operations (Department) received your request to process documentation related to the above-referenced Company-Related Action for E-Debit Global Corporation (WSHE). This letter hereby notifies you that pursuant to FINRA Rule 6490(d), the Department has determined that such request is deficient and it is necessary for the protection of investors, the public interest, and to maintain fair and orderly markets that documentation related to the above-referenced Company-Related Action will not be processed.

Specifically, the Department's deficiency determination is based on the following factors:

1. As set forth in FINRA Rule 6490(d)(3)(3), FINRA has actual knowledge that the issuer, associated persons, officers, directors, transfer agent, legal adviser, promoters or other persons connected to the issuer or the Securities Exchange Act (SEA) Rule 10b-17 Action or Other Company-Related Action are the subject of a pending, adjudicated or settled regulatory action or investigation by a federal, state or foreign regulatory agency, or a self-regulatory organization; or a civil or criminal action related to fraud or securities laws violations. Specifically:
 - FINRA has actual knowledge that Fred Sebastian (Sebastian) is the beneficial owner of 19.32% of WSHE's common stock and that Sebastian is the subject of a pending, adjudicated or settled regulatory action or investigation by a federal, state or foreign regulatory agency, or a self-regulatory organization; or a civil or criminal action related to fraud or securities laws violations. On July 20, 2015, the Financial and Consumer Affairs Authority of Saskatchewan (FCAA) determined that Sebastian engaged in a course of conduct in relation to securities that he knew or reasonable ought to have known, perpetrated a fraud on a person, contract to clause 55.1(b) of The Securities Act, 1988 (Chapter S-42.2 of the Statutes of Saskatchewan, 1988-89) (The Act).

- According to the FCAA's investigative findings:
 - "In and around 2012, Sebastian met with an elderly resident of Saskatchewan (the Investor) who he advised to invest in a company called E-Debit Global Corporation (E-Debit)."
 - "Sebastian solicited funds from the Investor by making exaggerated claims about the money to be made from investing in E-Debit, however he had no intention of investing the funds on her behalf."
 - "Because of his association with the Investor over an extended period of time, Sebastian knew or should have known that this would result in severe financial consequences for her."

The above activity involving Sebastian, a 19.32% holder of the company's common stock, has raised concerns for FINRA regarding the protection of investors and the transparency to the marketplace as it relates to the proposed corporate action request. As such, the Department has deemed Company's corporate action submission to be deficient under FINRA Rule 6490(d)(3)(3).

Your Right to Appeal the Determination

As a result, the Department will cease processing documentation related to such Company-Related Action and will make no announcement on the Daily List. Unless you request an appeal of the Department's determination in writing within seven (7) calendar days after service of this notice, your request will be closed.

In accordance with the procedures set forth in FINRA Rule 6490, you have the right to appeal the Department's determination by submitting a written Notice of Appeal via facsimile or electronic mail, within seven (7) calendar days after service of this notice. Appeals are considered by a three-member subcommittee (Subcommittee) comprised of current or former industry members of FINRA's Uniform Practice Code Committee.
