God's Promises: Part4
"Unconditional Promises"

Hebrews 6:11-12 New King James Version (NKJV)

¹¹ And we desire that each one of you show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope until the end, ¹² that you do not become sluggish, but imitate those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

1. Many of God's promises are _____ promises. An unconditional promise means that God will do what He promised no matter what.

When God gives an unconditional promise, whether men like it or don't like it, believe it or don't believe it--God is still going to do it! An unconditional promise means that GOD WILL do what He promised no matter what!

2. John 14:3

John 14:3 New King James Version (NKJV)

³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also.

Jesus said _____.

If certain people don't want Jesus to come again, will that change the promise? If men don't believe Jesus will come again, does this affect God's promise? Jesus is going to keep this promise no matter what! The only wise thing to do is to believe what God says!

3. Hebrews 13:5

Hebrews 13:5 New King James Version (NKJV)

⁵ Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you."^[a]

God says _____.

God will never leave the believer! That's God's promise! But what if the believer sins? Will God break His promise then? No, God keeps His promise and God will be right there with that sinning believer, convicting him and dealing with his heart until things are made right!

4. Matthew 17:23

Matthew 17:23 New King James Version (NKJV)

²³ and they will kill Him, and the third day He will be raised up." And they were exceedingly sorrowful.

Jesus said on the third day after His death _____.

There were many people who didn't want Jesus to rise again from the dead (Matthew 27:62-66). Did that change the promise? There were many people who didn't believe that Jesus would rise again from the dead (including the Lord's own disciples). Did that change God's promise? God is going to keep His Word no matter what!
