

Johnny Biondo (1926 - 2012)

Obituary

Johnny Anthony Biondo

Johnny Anthony Biondo, age 86, passed away at his residence in Blanchard, LA on September 1, 2012. Born May 22, 1926, he was a native of Belcher, LA. Survived by his wife, Jimmie Nell Batts Biondo, daughter, Michelle Adams and her husband, Curtis, daughter, Tracey Simmons, two sisters, four grandsons, Andrew Adams and his wife, Kayla, Spencer and Jordan Parker, Christopher Adams, and one granddaughter, Olivia Simmons.

Viewing will be Monday, September 3rd from 5pm to 7pm at Oil City United Pentecostal Church, Oil City, LA. Religious services will be at Oil City United Pentecostal Church at 10am on Tuesday, September 4th, conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. Kent Rhoads. Burial will follow at Lakeview Memorial Gardens, Oil City, LA. He was a retired farmer who loved to whistle Hank Williams, cook his great-tasting spaghetti, and was a dedicated member of Oil City United Pentecostal Church.

Guest Book

"As the days and weeks pass, and as you return to life's..."

- Jerri Rathbun

View

Sign