ADVENT PROGRAMS

Come! Join us in celebrating our Savior's birth! Here are just a few of the opportunities to worship and glorify Jesus' name this December:

December 10, baked goods will be sold by the youth before the service in the church narthex. Then, the Christmas Cantata will be performed during the normal worship service. You won't want to miss this joyful retelling of the Christmas story. A potluck meal will follow in the fellowship hall.

On Sunday, December 17, during worship, the Sunday School will present its Christmas pageant.

Finally, you'll want to join us for the Candlelight Christmas Eve Service on Sunday, December 24, at 6:30 p.m. and the Christmas Service on Monday, December 25, at 10:00 a.m.

In this newsletter, you will find many more ways you can honor Christ's birth.

2017-2018 SUNDAY SCHOOL CALENDAR

The Children and Youth Sunday School schedule will be coordinated, for the most part, with the West Fargo Public School schedule. So, if there is no school scheduled on a Friday or Monday, there may be no youth Sunday School scheduled for that week.

Dates CPC youth Sunday School will NOT be meeting are: December 24 and 31, January 14, February 18, March 11, April 1 and 22. The last day of Sunday School will be May 20.

PONDERINGS FROM PASTOR CATHIE

"To the church of God that is in West Fargo, ND, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." Those words written by Paul, are as relevant today as they were the day he wrote them to the Corinthians.

We are entering a significant period in our church year as Advent is the beginning of the church year, Year B. During the months that this newsletter covers, December 2017 and January 2018, we go through two "seasons" of the church year: Advent and Christmas, as well as an extended time called Epiphany.

Advent is recognized with the liturgical color of PURPLE, although some churches use the color blue. The word "ADVENT" means coming or arrival. Advent is a season of Hope. During Advent we wait for the baby to be born so we can celebrate the nativity. It also reminds us of the second coming of the Lord. During communion, we often say these words: "Christ has come, Christ is risen, and Christ will come again." The three truths define Advent as we wait and reflect and hope. The first Sunday of Advent is December 3 and goes through Sunday, December 24, the 4th Sunday of Advent. An action we can all pursue during advent is to take time for prayer and devotions specific to this season of our lives.

Christmas Eve, also on December 24, marks the beginning of the Christmas season as we celebrate the birth of the Christ child. What makes this year unique is that the 4th Sunday of Advent is on Sunday, December 24, which is also the beginning of the season of Christmas.

We will have two separate services of worship on the 24th of December. In the morning, we will have a regular worship service, focusing on the 4th Sunday of Advent. At 6:30 p.m. in the evening, we will have our Christmas Eve service, complete with Lessons and Carols, ending with lit candles and "Silent Night." The color of the Christmas season is WHITE.

The third date within these two months that we recognize is Epiphany. On January 6, the day of Epiphany, we commemorate the revelation of God's promise to the world. Candles are lit to recognize the light of Christ, the star that led the Magi to Bethlehem. Epiphany calls us, as Christians, to go out and tell others of Christ, specifically God's gift of grace and salvation for all people. We celebrate Christmas, and then with Epiphany, we do the work Christmas brings. There are two scripture passages you may want to read, to learn more about Epiphany. One of the passages is from the Old Testament, and the other is a Gospel reading from the New Testament: Isaiah 60:1-6 and Matthew 2:1-12.

On the day after the twelve days of Christ, our European Christian brothers and sisters recognize Epiphany by inviting guests who come together at the home of the host where they bless the home in the name of Christ, and the Maggi. Together the guests go through a liturgy and end with prayer. As part of the blessing, the guests "Chalk the Door." Chalking the door involves writing, with chalk, three letters: CMB. The letters are translated as, "May Christ bless this dwelling." The letters are "book-ended" with the numbers of the current year. In between the letters and numbers, they place crosses. If you were to "Chalk the Door" at your house on January 6, it would look like this: 20 + C + M + B + 18.

No matter what your tradition is with family and friends during Advent or Christmas, or on Epiphany, remember that we wait for, and celebrate the birth of God's Son, Jesus. According to Isaiah 9:6: "For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace."

The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you,
Pastor Cathie

SNOWBIRD REMINDER

Are you ready to fly off to warmer climates? If so, don't forget to take CPC with you.

Please inform our office manager, Connie Holmen (office@cpcwf.org or 282-4135), regarding your temporary address(es) and the time you will be away from home so you won't miss any CPC mailings. Please note: the U.S. Postal Service does NOT forward CPC newsletters. They are returned to us when the address is vacant along with a charge for the service.

Notify Gayle Thostenson if you would like to be included on the prayer chain e-list. Finally, don't forget to catch the sermons you'll miss on site by visiting the web at <http://vimeo.com/cpcwf>.

PRAYER TIME

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

I Timothy 2:1-4

Join us for a half hour of prayer at 9:30 a.m. on Wednesdays, December 13 and January 17, as we worship, praise, and lay our petitions before our Lord and God.

Pastor Cathie is serving on the Cass/Clay VOAD (Voluntary Organizations that Assist in Disaster) committee. This committee aids in emergency preparedness.

A guest speaker will fill the pulpit for Pastor Cathie on December 31, 2017.

Christian Education Committee: The children are preparing for their Christmas program on December 17. There will be a youth bake sale on Sunday, December 10. The youth put together 19 boxes for The Samaritan's Purse.

Deacons: Goodie baskets will be delivered in November. Home and hospital visits are being made.

Nominating Committee: There are positions available on Deacons and Session. Please listen for God's call.

Trustees: Snow removal is still being discussed. Heat problems have been resolved. Kevin Galt will take care of the fire inspection.

Stewardship: Budgets are due by December 15 or sooner!

No Reports: Mission, Personnel, Service and Fellowship, or Worship committees.

Meeting closed with prayer by Pastor Cathie at 8:29 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Becky DeJong, Clerk of Session

GIFTS FOR THE COLD

"...Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

Matthew 25:40

This December the Mission Committee is asking our congregation to donate Christmas gifts for the men at the New Life Center. Ideas for gifts are: gloves, socks, t-shirts, long underwear, caps, or sweatshirts. Gently used coats, hats and mittens are also welcome.

For more information about the New Life Center, go to their website at:

<http://www.fargonlc.org/>

BLUE CHRISTMAS: A SERVICE OF
AND HEALING

Have you or a person close to you lost a loved one? Or had major changes in your work life, moved, gotten married, been divorced, had a family member or friend move from the area, or have been feeling sad because of the state of our world...then the Blue Christmas Service is for you.

The public perception of the holiday season is that everyone is happy and filled with excitement. In truth, those who have been through a loss are not feeling the way the commercials and others portray. A Blue Christmas Service acknowledges that not everyone feels joy during this season. We gather together in worship to seek God's comfort, courage, and peace. In gathering, we discover that we are not alone.

A "Blue Christmas: Service of Hope and Healing" will be held at Community Presbyterian Church. The service will be on Thursday, December 14, at 7:00 p.m. After the service, we will have refreshments in the narthex so there is time for conversation with others.

Come, bring your family and friends.

Pastor Cathie

NEW LIFE CENTER
THANKS

I want to extend a special 'Thank you' for all the people who stepped up to help at the New Life Auxiliary luncheon which was held at our church. To the people who set up tables and chairs, made bars, the kitchen ladies, and Kevin, Chad, and Dave who provided special music: Thank you. Your help is ever so much appreciated.

Thank you,
Gloria Ruhnke
New Life Center Delegate

RINGING IN OUR THANKS

Thanks to all the volunteers who will be ringing bells for the Salvation Army on December 2nd. We rang or will be ringing bells in the FM area for a total of 20 hours, the equivalent of 1 person for half a week!

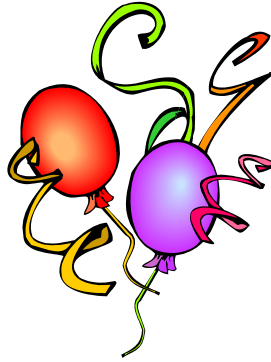

ANGEL TREE

Our church is engaging in a second year of Angel Tree, a program of Prison Fellowship, which reaches out to the children of inmates and their families with the love of Christ. This unique program gives our church an opportunity to share Christ's love by helping to meet the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of the families of prisoners. CPC will be buying gifts for children on behalf of their imprisoned parents.

Deliveries will be made Saturday, December 16. For more information, contact Steve Hanna or Dixon Moorhead.

CANTATA TO BE PERFORMED

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 10

Come to worship Sunday, December 10, and enjoy the choir's performance of Glorious Song, Marvelous Light as compiled by Dale Mathews. This festive, dynamic, and worshipful seasonal musical celebrates the majesty and glory surrounding the heavenly announcement proclaiming the birth of the newborn King...that holy night when Christ, our Savior was born. Emmanuel God with us. You'll hear old and new carols, all sung to God's glory.

CALLING ALL LITURGISTS & MUSICIANS

Having a second voice lead the liturgy enhances everyone's worship experience as does music in worship. Please prayerfully consider assisting in worship as liturgist or musician ... and sign up.

DON'T FORGET TO SIGN UP TO TEACH

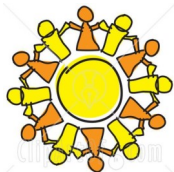

Teach a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it.

Proverbs 22:6

What better way to do this than to join our Sunday School team as a teacher? We have several openings for this coming year, and we need you! Share your love of Christ with CPC children or youth. No experience is necessary, curriculum is provided.

Sign up sheets are on the old narthex bulletin board. Teachers for the pre-school/kindergarten and elementary classes are especially needed, but substitutes are welcome at all levels. Address questions to Cathy Birrenkott at Cbirrenkott@west-fargo.K12.nd.us or 701-200-3726.

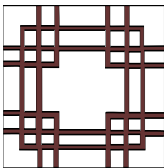

PRAYER CHAIN

Sharing our needs and concerns in prayer with our church family brings us closer to one another and lightens our load. If you have a prayer concern, please contact Gayle Thostenson (atgtet@far.midco.net or 492-0630). Also, it's never too late to join the prayer chain. To be added to the prayer chain e-list, just let Gayle know.

DISCIPLE BIBLE STUDY

December is filled with joys and chaos. Our Bible study will not meet in December, so take a few minutes to read the Bible story of Jesus' birth on Wednesday, December 13.

In January we will gather to learn more about the disciple, James the Less, He was one about whom not much is known. We will meet at 5:55 p.m. Wednesday, January 10, at the church. Please bring a dish to share with others. May your Christmas and New Year be full of blessings.

WEDNESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Are there some things that won't be in heaven; do all roads lead there, and can we put away treasures in heaven? Join us Wednesday mornings at 10:00 to learn answers to these questions and more as we dive into the Bible to learn about heaven using Randy Alcorn's Bible study guide. Most of the lessons on this subject are able to stand alone, so one need not attend every lesson to reap the benefits of the study.

All are welcome! Contact Bonnie Thompson for more details.

JOIN US FOR ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL!

We meet in the upstairs conference room about 9:00 a.m. In December, we will focus on Advent. In January, we will continue our study of I Peter. Don't hesitate to join us. There is always coffee, comradery, and God's gift of the Bible.

SERVANTS NEEDED

We need you to assist in the delivery and preparation of meals at Churches United for the homeless. We help serve the meal at Churches United the second Wednesday of every odd month (January, March, May, July, September, November) at 4:00 p.m. See Dixon Moorhead for details of how you can help.

LADIES 8TH ANNUAL FA-LA-LA FESTIVITIES

When: December 3rd

Time: 5:30 to 8:00 p.m.

Hosts Becky DeJong and Carol Sterup invite you to share in an evening of Fellowship, Food and Fun. We request the presence of ALL the Ladies, age 14 and up. There will be a Christmas gift exchange with a $5.00 limit. Feel free to wear your favorite holiday attire!!

FA LA LA WISHES

In preparation for the eighth annual Fa-La-La Festivities, Becky DeJong requests the donation of glass jars without lids. So check your cupboard and pantries and let Becky (701-281-8122 or bfdejong64@gmail.com) know if you've any extras.

Thank you in advance for your help!

SALVATION ARMY CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON

Once again Community Presbyterian Church will be preparing and serving the annual Christmas meal at the Salvation Army. CPC families have made this mission a cornerstone of their Christmas experience, and you are invited to join us.

The sit down meal will be served at 11:30 a.m., Friday, December 22nd. We generally serve 200 plus meals to our patrons. Our kitchen and decoration people should arrive at 7:30 a.m.; the steam table people and our servers by 11:00 a.m. Everyone will need to stay afterwards for the clean-up, so that we can be out the door by 2:00 p.m.

Invite your family and friends to help us and sign up your numbers on the sheet in the narthex. We will have eternally significant jobs for all age groups.

Kindest Regards, Dixon

YOUTH BAKE SALE

The Annual Youth Group Bake Sale is just around the corner! Come ready to buy goodies to eat or to share at the potluck! Donations of goodies to sell are also welcome. Both middle school and high school youth will be working together and selling baked goodies in the narthex on Sunday, December 10th, before church.

BELL RINGING FOR SALVATION ARMY

Bell ringing for Salvation Army will be Saturday, December 2nd, at Cash Wise in West Fargo and West Acres Main Entrance. These are all inside locations.

If you have any questions, contact Carolyn Meester at 793-3245 or cjmeester@msn.com
