St. Lucas Lutheran Church throws open its doors for the 27th annual Slovak-Fest.

“South City hails the King of the Cabbage Rolls!”

On Saturday, November 5, 2016 at 11:00 AM St. Lucas Lutheran Church in South City located at 7100 Morganford Road. will throw open its doors for the 26th annual Slovak-Fest. The event runs from 11:00 AM to 6:00 PM. A South City tradition since 1990 the Slovak-Fest packs in a lively crowd with great music, food and pastries from the old country.

The star of the Slovak-Fest is the food. Dinners include Chicken Paprikash and Holubky – the King of the Cabbage Rolls! All food is hand made with an attention to detail. Long time Slovak-Fest coordinator Joyce Kolnik points out, “The fresh stuffed cabbage rolls that come out of our kitchen are a lot of hard work. We use the best ingredients with fantastic fresh flavors. When we see our wonderful guests smiling we know our tasty Holubky is the King of the Cabbage Rolls!”

Traditional Slovak pastries and baked goods are also available.

Two bands will play:

- Larry Hallar’s Two Star Final playing from 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM.
- Joe Polach and the St. Louis Express who will hit the stage at 3:00 PM and close out the Slovak-Fest at 6:00 PM.
