Email Address

The Arizona Cannabis Bar Association is an Arizona non-profit corporation whose mission is to promote lawyer and public education regarding cannabis law.

The Arizona Cannabis Bar Association will host and/or promote continuing education seminars throughout its fiscal year. The Arizona Cannabis Bar Association will also support formation of an annual panel forum at a major continuing legal education event, such as the State Bar of Arizona Bar Convention.

Meals and/or snacks may or may not be provided at Arizona Cannabis Bar Association events. Dues paid provide you with membership only and do not assure your attendance or participation at any event.

The Arizona Cannabis Bar Association accepts checks or cash only – NO CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS.

Membership in the Arizona Cannabis Bar Association is open to licensed lawyers in good standing with the State Bar of Arizona. Annual dues are $50 and are not prorated. Dues are used to maintain and to support the Arizona Cannabis Bar Association and its mission of law education.

Membership in the Arizona Cannabis Bar Association is also open to enrolled law students attending any ABA-accredited law school. Student membership is at no charge. However, student members may not hold any office or board positions, may not vote on any matters where a vote would be taken, and may be excluded from participating in certain Association events.

Attendance at any Arizona Cannabis Bar Association event is limited to members and to those who prepay and/or who pay at the door. Arizona Cannabis Bar Association will not accept IOUs, and failure to pay means you will be turned away.

Membership in the Arizona Cannabis Bar Association will entitle members to discounts on Association CLE programs, access to the Association website (presently under construction), listing in the Association directory of members, and participation in Association programs.

Applicant's Statement
