INTERCULTURAL COMPETENCE 4.0

SIETAR India presents its 6th International Conference: Intercultural Competence 4.0

Why the Conference?

Harvard Business Review has identified intercultural competence as the most valuable skill for a 21st century manager. This conference is focused on exploring practical strategies to address the shrinking geographical space and increasing complexities of global interactions through the Indian lens.

What topics will the conference address?

- Concepts, tools and skills for building intercultural competence keeping in mind the needs of those living, studying and working in a post-globalized world
- Fresh new paradigms and perspectives the intercultural field must integrate to make our corporate world and academia more culturally intelligent and inclusive
- Best practices emerging from India and from the rest of the world about multi-cultural collaboration and leveraging of diversity

Who should attend?

Leaders, managers, trainers, coaches and consultants—any individual working globally.

Who is presenting at the conference?

Professionals with experience on six continents representing the fields of business, government, communications, human resources and technology. There will be 24 individual presentations, two panels and three keynote speakers.

When and where is the conference?

- February 17th and 18th, 2018 at MCCIA, Pune
- Pre-Conference Gala Dinner on February 16th at Oxford Golf Resort, Lavale, Pune

How much does the conference cost?

INR 8,500 for Non-Members and
