

2017 Brigade Lecture Series

March 23 “The Infamous Isles of Shoals”

Ann Beattie, Independent Shoals Historian

April 27 “Crosscut: The Mills, Logging and Life on the Androscoggin”

Rebecca Rule, Storyteller and Author

Sponsored by New Hampshire Humanities

May 25 “New Hampshire and the Clipper Ship Era”

Glenn Knoblock, Independent Scholar, Historian, and Author

Sponsored by New Hampshire Humanities

June 22 “Fur, Fins and Forests: How Nature Shaped New Hampshire’s History”

Ruth Smith, Environmental Educator and Journalist

July 27 SPECIAL EVENT: Open House & Ice Cream Social (5:30-6:30pm)
Concert on the lawn with music by The 39th US Army Band—
NH Army National Guard (7:00pm)

Bring a chair

August 24 “The Maine Memorial Monument at Hampton Beach”

Aurora Eaton, Historian, Author and Newspaper Columnist

Sept. 28 “The Taverns in Early New England”

James Garvin, Architectural Historian

Oct. 26 “Traditional New England and Celtic Folk Tunes”

The Fiddle Gals

Nov. 21 SPECIAL EVENT: 10:00am

Official Remembrance of Franklin Pierce’s Birthday

NH National Guard Wreath Laying at Old North Cemetery

Reception at the Manse to follow.

All programs are free and open to the public.