

Do you have stuff in your closets and attic that you want to get rid of but don't want to go through all the trouble to advertise and make up signs to have a yard sale? Is your location too far off the beaten path for a yard sale? You're in luck!

Clean out your garage and attic and sell your extra stuff at the Van Wyck Homestead Yard Sale on May 30th. For $25 you receive a ten foot by ten foot space outside on the lawn and you keep all the proceeds from what you sell.

The museum has been hosting a yard sale in the spring for many years and this year we are turning the space over to you. Last year we experimented with this format and everyone was pleased with the outcome. Even with less than perfect weather, participants sold lots of their extra stuff.

We will do the advertising, including signs directing visitors to our great location at the intersection of Route 9 and I-84. May 30th is the same day as the Village Wide Yard Sale in Fishkill so people will be out looking for bargains. The museum will sell coffee and donuts the day of the sale.
