

Greyerbiehl, Helen

Helen Mae (Hill) Greyerbiehl, 83, life-long resident of Bad Axe, died Friday, Oct. 4, 2002 in Pigeon. She was born June 13, 1919 in Bad Axe to the late Ira and Anabell (Hubbard) Hill. Helen and Lester Greyerbiehl were united in marriage on June 21, 1937 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Bad Axe by Fr. Leo Dorsey. Lester preceded her in death on August 25, 1995. Helen enjoyed visiting with relatives and friends and playing euchre. She is survived by five sons: Michael Greyerbiehl and his wife, Beverly, of Bad Axe; Patrick Greyerbiehl and his wife, Vicki, of Bad Axe; George Greyerbiehl and his wife, Mary, of Bad Axe; Douglas Greyerbiehl and his wife, Tammera, of Ubly; and Paul Greyerbiehl of Bad Axe; six daughters, Shirley Leppek and her husband, Raymond, of Bad Axe; Nancy Janik and her husband, Henry, of Bad Axe; Janet Sweeney and her husband, Edward, of Cass City; Patricia Grigg of Bad Axe; Theresa Provot and her husband, Philip of Coldwater; Brenda Kreh and her husband, Thomas, of Pigeon; four sisters-in-law, Viola Hill of Bad Axe, Irene Glatt of Florida, Virginia Greyerbiehl of Bay City, and Helen Hill of Owosso; one brother-in-law, Charles Greyerbiehl of Filion; 46 grandchildren, 49 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a son, Thomas Greyerbiehl; one sister, Beatrice Brzezinski; three brothers, George, Kenneth and Walter Hill. Mass of Christina burial will be at 11 a.m. Monday, Oct. 7, 2002 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Bad Axe. Fr. John Killop will officiate. A scripture service will be at 7 p.m. on Sunday. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. today at the MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe, and from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. on Monday at the church. Memorials may be made to the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Huntington's Disease Society of America or donor's choice.