Play

The Last Dragon of Royal Academy by Sabrina Willis-Bartram

A 20-minute play about students at a school for royalty, and how they react when a new kid starts at the school—she's a Dragon! There are a lot of magical characters for girls and boys that will make performing in this play a BLAST!

16 roles available/ No double casting

Performances

Friday, March 28th 6:30 PM

Saturday, March 29th 11 AM & 12 PM

Tickets are $10 each

Deadline to sign up: March 11th (or once full)

Mandatory student and parent meeting: March 12th at 6 PM

At this meeting we will discuss all details and answer questions. During a short portion of the meeting, we will play acting games and do script readings so that we are able to cast the show. If your child signed up, they are guaranteed a role, we just need to figure out where to put everyone. All roles will have speaking lines and ample stage time.

Student must be able to attend all 5 days of the camp, plus the performances on Friday, March 28th and Saturday, March 29th. Students will be in three performances.

Students will learn the basics of being in play. They will learn blocking, creating interesting characters, and working as a team. Students will need help with line memorization at home. Costumes will be simple pieced together items, and the kids may get to be involved in creating them. Parents may need to provide a few items such as shoes, pants, undershirts, etc.
