NCPC Membership Benefits

- The most important benefit of the NCPC membership, however, is the defense and protection of our Constitutional Rights and Fundamental Freedoms through Bill of Rights and Legislative actions. Successful legislative action begins with us, the individual members.
- Eligibility to become Members of Parliament (MP) Candidates to represent your community in Parliament as a Federal Government voice for your Community and receive the guaranteed base salary for all elected MPs.
- Receive special discounts on products and services of the Party, including exclusive invitations to special events and conventions, annual fundraising gala and national caucus participation, most importantly leadership convention.
- Be connected to other local, regional and national leaders that are already working to further the Party's overall national political agenda, and take active part in the Party's National Caucus.
- As a members, we work together to place the NCPC at work to represent us, acting on our behalf through national political actions and in governmental reform policies.
- To have the opportunity to achieve real political change through member involvement.
- Registered Members can rally for NCPC Leadership Contest, Member of Parliament (MP) Candidacy and other non political or executive functions of the Party.

The Role of the National Membership Committee (NMC)

The National Membership Committee (NMC) provides supplementary support and assistance for citizens who satisfy the qualifications for NCPC regular and honorary membership statuses. If so, the committee advises the recipient or applicant and places the name on the list for approval by the Leader or the Chairman.
