

Awaken to Eco

"Unlock the Secrets to Green Living"

Awaken to Eco believes in the power of making positive choices. That's why we strive to give you our very best. Awaken to Eco featuring Vert Cleaning is an environmentally-friendly cleaning and consulting service company dedicated to improving the health and well-being of our clients, community, and the planet.

Locally established in Greenville, SC in 2005, our family is proud of being a community green leader; putting the Green back in Greenville by thinking green. Guided by the Triple Bottom Line Theory, which prioritizes our goals by caring for people and the planet first and then, profit; Awaken to Eco /Vert is setting the industry standard for green cleaning and consulting in the Upstate.

Our Vision

To service and educate the community on the benefits of green living while providing our clients with professional and committed service.
