

You're Not From Around Here, Are You? By Robin Gile

"We're really not from here, are we?"

"Nope, not for a long time," was the laconic reply.

"We were here when there were only 360 days in the year," someone else was heard to murmur.

"Yes that might have made the cycle, circle, the sense of Ouroboros make more sense to some of our progeny. Do you think?"

"I thought that thinking was a dead end, a blind alley, a mental illness of a sort....."

"Oh yes, but," the first querent spoke in a quieter voice, "yes back when we could Feel!"
