

Jesus Embraces the Culturally Marginalized

Today's readings are about forced quarantine. On one level they are about diseases that might be contagious. On another level they are about ritual impurity that was contagious. The Israelites believed that to stand before God in worship, one's body had to be physically intact—no fractures or missing body parts, no open wounds, no oozing body fluids. Skin lesions like those associated with leprosy made one ritually unclean or impure. Furthermore, to touch one with such a disease was to become unclean oneself. The ritual impurity was considered contagious, not necessarily the disease. Unclean people were socially and religiously ostracized.

In the Gospel story, Jesus completely neutralized this practice. Touching the leprous and thus unclean man, Jesus not only didn't become unclean himself, but he actually made the man clean again. The issue here is not merely one of healing. It is a matter of reincorporating the marginalized man into society.

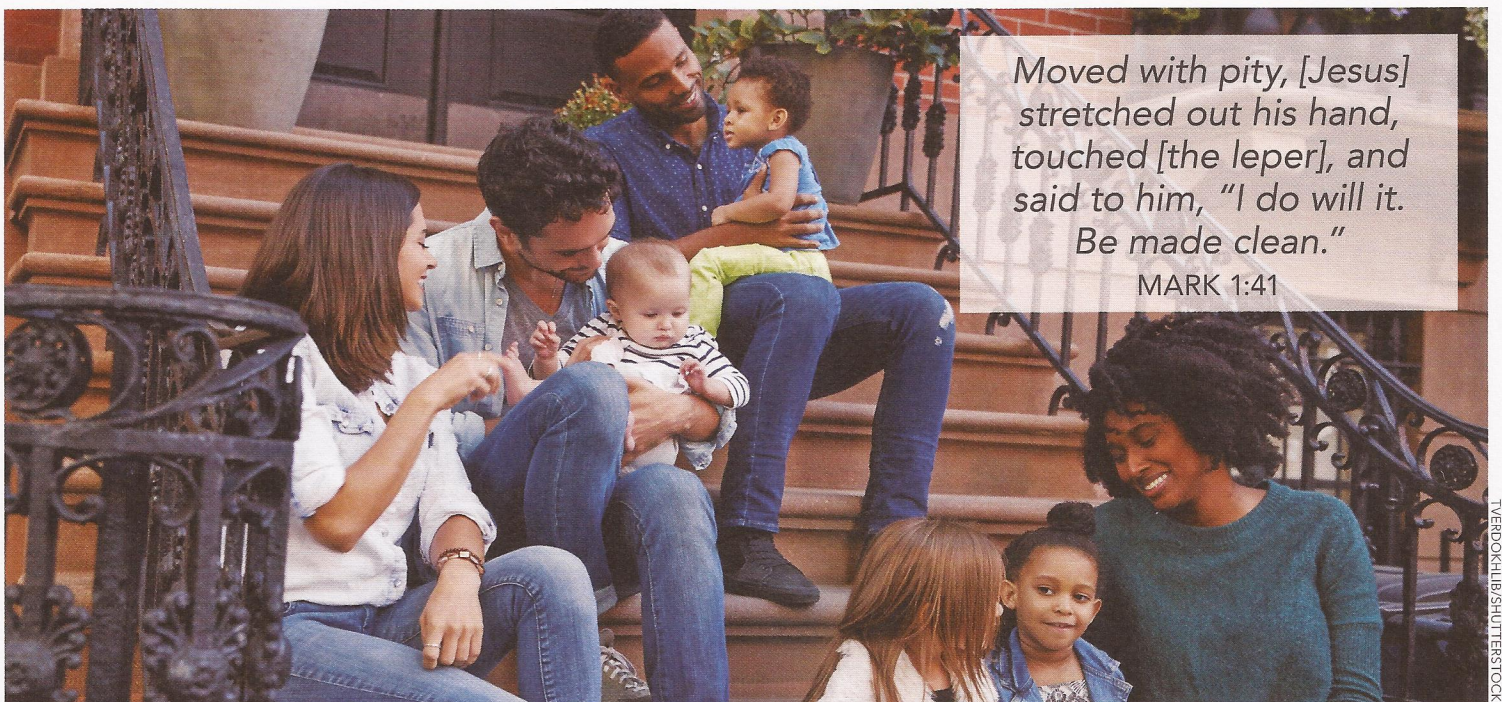

Unfortunately, out of fear or a sense of superiority, some people ostracize or marginalize entire groups of people. This bias might be based on gender, race, culture, sexual preference—almost anything. In this way the benefits of society are denied to those who are marginalized. One characteristic of Jesus, obvious throughout the Gospel stories, is his all-inclusiveness. Jesus rejected no one. He was open to those who society ostracized. He interacted graciously with people with diseases, non-Jews, recognized public sinners, and those working with the Roman occupiers—all people considered ritually unclean. As his disciples, can we do less?

Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

FOR Reflection

- ★ Which groups of people does society tend to ostracize or marginalize?
- ★ What might be done to reverse this bias?

Moved with pity, [Jesus] stretched out his hand, touched [the leper], and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean."

MARK 1:41

Dear Padre,

At Mass on holy days of obligation, there's a fair crowd. But on Ash Wednesday, not a holy day, the place is packed. Your explanation?

Indeed, pastoral experience corroborates your observation. Holy days of obligation draw well, but it's "standing room only" on Ash Wednesday. Although not a day of obligation, perhaps it's considered a "holy" day by most Catholics.

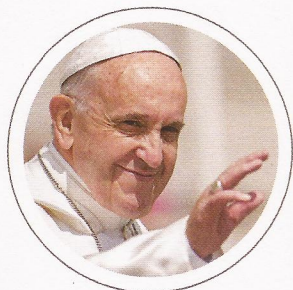

There's something elemental about the smudge of ashes on the forehead. People wear it without embarrassment or shame. No matter our walk of life or social status, we want that sooty cross. It's a badge of identification, graphically reminding Catholics that it's "spiritual gut-check" time. It jogs us from our routines, spurring us to the important reality of being who we are supposed to be—fully and totally Christian. It's as if we are saying, "I'm Catholic and proud of it. I may not be the best or greatest. I have faults and sins, but I'm not a bad person. I know deep down that being Christian is the way to live, and I'm going to try again."

Ash Wednesday signals the beginning of Lent, the Church's special time of confession and renewal in preparation for Easter. It is what Christians are all about—a people who have died with Christ in the waters of baptism in order to rise with him to a new life. We renew our baptismal commitment to be his people. As we celebrate Christ's passage through death to life, we renew our own death to old sinful ways to rise and live with recaptured vigor.

THOMAS SHUTTERSTOCK

Contrary to the dispositions of the Law of Moses, which prohibited a leper from drawing near, Jesus extends his hand and even touches him....Jesus teaches us not to be afraid to touch the poor and the excluded, because he is in them. Touching the poor can cleanse us from hypocrisy.

Capital Campaign Update

As we have been working for a little over a year now, we are proud of our total of pledges and donations of $202,000, but we have a ways to go to get to our goal of $850,000.

We are happy to share that we have accepted a bid on the concrete work that is to be done and we hope that work will begin just as soon as the weather allows. That work will include replacing all of the sidewalk on the north and south side of the building. It will also include the sidewalk in front of the building.

Even more importantly, it will replace the ramps to make them truly accessible and up to code. The front entrance of the church will also be made truly accessible as the concrete will be poured to make the entrance to the church the same height as the door opening. This will not only improve the looks of the outside of the church, but it will make our church grounds safer by eliminating the tripping points that have been a problem for some time.

Another bit of good news is that we did receive a claim on the steeple of the church and will receive $9,000 to use toward the repair of the damaged slate. This is very welcome news as the damage was far more extensive than we first realized.

If you were not able to attend either of the Town Hall meetings we hosted at the beginning of the Campaign, we now have a way for you to learn more about the process we have used and the projects we have yet to complete. At the end of this announcement is a URL or web address that will take you to the video.

In addition, I also linked it to the church Facebook page yesterday. If you are on Facebook, you can just click on the link and it takes you straight to the video. If anyone has trouble accessing it, please reach out and we can always email a link straight to you.

If you have not yet made a pledge or a donation, we do hope you will take the time to watch the video and see what this is all about. We need everyone's help to reach our goal and we think once you hear what we plan to do you will want to help.

This year, 2021, is the 160th anniversary of this parish and we want our parish home – our place of worship – to be here for generations to come. The Capital Campaign is one way we can help that happen. Thank you for your donations and thank you for your prayerful consideration in being a part of this Campaign. God Bless.

Fasting and Abstinence During Lent

To foster a greater spirit of penance, of reparation for sin, to encourage self-denial, and so guide us more closely in the footsteps of Christ, Holy Mother Church reminds us of the following obligations of fast and abstinence during Lent and also admonishes us all to deeper prayer and worship.

1. Abstinence: all persons who have already celebrated their 14th birthday are bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, all Fridays of Lent and Good Friday.
2. Fasting: everyone, from the celebration of their 18th birthday to their 59th birthday, is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fasting is generally understood to mean eating only one full meal each day. Two other partial meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken; but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids are allowed. Voluntary fasting on other weekdays of Lent is highly recommended. But please note: when health or ability to work would be seriously affected, neither the law of fasting nor the law of abstinence obliges. These are minimal penitential practices and should not be lightly excused. If in doubt, please consult your parish priest. Other recommended forms of fasting, as regards alcoholic drink, needless television, video games, internet use, and social entertainment, are of true spiritual value and strongly encouraged.

Please keep in your prayers the following people:

Residents of St. Andrews New Florence Nursing & Care Center, Hwy 19 & Picnic Road, New Florence, MO 63363 - Susan Ryan

This Lenten Schedule is for your use to make plans for a fruitful Lenten Season. Some events and days may have changes due to circumstances but this schedule will be followed as closely as possible. The Chrism Mass in Jefferson City may be changed by the Bishop at his discretion. Times for confession may be added if a need is there. Regulations for the observance of DAYS OF FAST AND ABSTINENCE will be published in the Catholic Missourian and in the Bulletin. Books for the private offering of the Stations of the Cross are available to those who might want to make the Stations of the Cross at home. We are planning to have a living Stations of the Cross during Lent that will be determined by the school's schedule. The events of each week will also be published in the weekly bulletins.

Have a blessed, holy Season of Lent.

Fr. Hartley
