

Kreh, Milton

Milton G. Kreh, 88, of Pigeon passed away Thursday, Aug. 1, 2002 at Hills & Dales General Hospital in Cass City. He was born in Pigeon on March 16, 1914, the son of the late Levi and Maude (Baughman) Kreh. On Nov. 12, 1935 he was united in marriage to Isabelle J. Heron in Pigeon. She preceded him in death on Dec. 2, 1996. Mr. Kreh worked as a bumper and painter for Pigeon Motor Sales for 40 years. He was active with the Top of the Thumb Leisure Ministries and also served on the board of the Pigeon Historical Society. He enjoyed playing horseshoes and was inducted into the M-46 Horseshoe Hall of Fame. Along with Mary Leipprandt and Ray Schweitzer, Mr. Kreh played in a trio at the opening of the WLEW radio station. He was a faithful, active and dedicated member of the Salem United Methodist Church in Pigeon where he was a former Sunday School teacher as well as Sunday School superintendent. He and his late wife, Isabelle, were also church custodians for many years. He is survived by his daughters, Donna Krohn and her husband, Ron, of Elkton, Ruthann Ewald and her husband, Don, of Caseville, Phyllis Crotser and her husband, Tim, of Bay City; a son, Ronald Kreh, and his wife, Cathy, of Clinton Township; 12 grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; a sister, Mildred Germaine of Davison; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by four brothers, Arthur, Elmer, Martin and Roy; and a sister, Lavina Lacey. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Monday, Aug. 5, 2002 at the Salem United Methodist Church in Pigeon, with Pastor Michael T. Sawicki officiating. Burial will be in the Grand Lawn Cemetery. Visitation will be from 2 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 9 p.m. today at the Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home in Pigeon, and from 10 a.m. until the time of service at 11 a.m. Monday at the Salem United Methodist Church in Pigeon. Memorials for Mr. Kreh maybe made to the Salem United Methodist Church, the Pigeon Historical Society or the charity of the donor's choice.
