1	I definitely feel that there is preferential treatment (grade level assignments) towards certain people or against others. Also, certain parents get what they want (requested teachers, testing) whereas other parents who do the same thing don't get their requested teacher or what they want for their child.	1/30/2021 2:22 PM

1	Yes, we have at least one staff meeting a month and receive email communication daily. We also have had trainings and have our weekly PLC with instructional email to grade level teams. They keep us in the know.	2/18/2021 12:18 PM
2	We were not told about the signing of the lesson plans until months after other schools were told. We were never told that our school was closed due to positive cases. We had to read it in the newspaper. Also, I am teaching on campus, and I received a letter from Erin Johnston about a positive case on campus. Another teacher, who is NOT on campus heard before I did about the case, and she knew where the person worked.	1/30/2021 2:22 PM
