

Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver Conducts Consular Outreach Mission in Whitehorse, Yukon Territory

22 September 2018 – Consular Assistant Charles N. Garrido (left) captures biometric data of a passport applicant during the consular outreach mission in Whitehorse, Yukon Territory.

Vice Consul Charmaine D. Guevara answers queries, ranging from tax regulations and benefits of reacquiring Philippine citizenships, from Filipino-Canadians who took the oath of dual citizenship during the consular outreach in Whitehorse, Yukon Territory.

OWWA Welfare Officer Lilia F. De Guzman (back row, left) and POLO-Vancouver Administrative Staff Jesus Emmanuel M. Samonte (back row, right) conduct information session with temporary Filipino workers in Whitehorse on OEC, OWWA membership, and the services provided by POLO-Vancouver.