

Day of Pentecost May 28, 2023

Communion- St. Paul reminds us to examine ourselves before taking the Lord's Supper. Communicants are required to be members of a Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod Congregation. We do this out of pastoral concern and in Christian love. If you have any questions, please see Pastor before worship. Thank you.

We offer gluten-free wafers during communion. If you are gluten-free, please indicate to Pastor before service or at reception.

Please complete the attendance card and give it to an usher on your way out of church. Thank you.

Pentecost is from the Greek for "fiftieth day." Pentecost is the liturgical celebration of that 50th day after Easter when the Holy Spirit was poured out on the disciples, marking the birth of the church. Liturgically, Pentecost is not the beginning of a new season, but the culmination of Easter.

The Holy Spirit Gives Peace

Following the flood, Noah's descendants failed to spread out and fill the earth as God had spoken. Rather, they exalted themselves; with "one language and the same words" (Gen. 11:1) they spoke proudly and arrogantly. The Lord humbled them by confusing "the language of all the earth," dividing and dispersing the people (Gen. 11:9). That dispersal was reversed on Pentecost Day (the fiftieth day of Easter), when God caused the one Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ to be preached in a multitude of languages. "At this sound the multitude came together" (Acts 2:6), for the preaching of Christ is the primary work of the Holy Spirit, whereby He gathers people from all nations into one Church. The Holy Spirit teaches and brings to our remembrance the words of Jesus, which are the words of the Father who sent Him. These words bestow forgiveness and peace to those who keep and hold on to them in love for Jesus. "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid." (John 14:27).

LCMS Lectionary Summary for The Day of Pentecost

Building Healthy Families

It's been said that children may not always be good at listening to their parents, but they never fail to imitate them. The words you speak are less important than the everyday life you lead. Your children (and grandchildren) are constantly learning about life by watching you. What an immense responsibility. What an incredible privilege! Pray that God will help you to be the kind of adult that you want your child (or grandchild) to become. Lutheran Family Service

Ushers: Bill Holmstrom, Lynn Arends, Ron Hankom

Dear Issues, Etc. Listener,

How does a Christian navigate the rising tide of lies and half-truths regarding human nature, human purpose and our place in God's creation? Is man free to define himself and his own truth, or is there an eternal Truth to guide us and free us from falsehood?

We've produced a three-part series on Human Nature with Pr. Christopher Esget, author of the new book (Dis)ordered: The Lies about Human Nature and the Truth that Set Us Free. Go to www.issuesetc.org/disordered/ to listen to the entire series. You can also purchase this book at Concordia Publishing House.

Important Extras

Please notify the church office of any outside groups meeting within our church building. The date and time of the meeting needs to be known in case other church functions are taking place.

Make sure all the doors are locked if you are one of the last people to leave the church. Thank you for being cognizant of this safety measure.

Individual/small group communion is still being offered. Please telephone the church office if interested.
