From Catechism: The Mass is the Source and Summit of the Christian Life: continuation of the Mass from the official Roman Missal(on Altar): The role of the Priest (in Red) and the People (In Black,) at Mass: (people's response in bold, my notes in italic) The Liturgy of the Eucharist: and all your Saints: we ask that through their merits and prayers, in all things we may be defended by your protecting help. [Through Christ our Lord. Amen.] With hands extended, the Priest continues: Celebrant alone Therefore, Lord, we pray: graciously accept this oblation of our service, that of your whole family; order our days in your peace, and command that we be delivered from eternal damnation and counted among the flock of those you have chosen. He joins his hands. [Through Christ our Lord. Amen.] (calling on Holy Spirit) Holding his hands extended over the offerings, he says: (Celebrant with concelebrants) Be pleased, O God, we pray, to bless, acknowledge, and approve this offering in every respect; make it spiritual and acceptable, so that it may become for us the Body and Blood of your most beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. He joins his hands. (to be continued:) God Bless Fr. The toys are something I look forward to, going to the hospital as much as I do. They become my friends and hold special memories for me.

-Jaden, Age 9

Auto-Immune Neutropenia

Remembering back when I was hospitalized every two months, toys distracted me from the pain I felt. Being able to draw and color meant I was going home soon.

- Lainey, Age 11

Cyclic Vomiting Syndrome

The Emily Meyer Foundation

Home of
Emily's Awesome Toy Drive

The Emily Meyer Foundation is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization created to support

Emily's Awesome Toy Drive and provide assistance within our local community.

In 2009, on Christmas night, Emily became ill and was rushed to a local hospital. The next morning, she received a bag full of toys from the Child Life Department. Their philosophy was, and still is, that no child should be sick during the holidays, but if they are, they should still feel the joy of the holiday season.

The very next year, Emily wanted to give back by collecting 20 new toys with her grandfather and delivering them to the very hospital she was in, just the year before. The rest is history!

Emily just celebrated the 10 year anniversary of Emily's Awesome Toy Drive providing toys, games and activities to critically/chronically ill children and supporting local families in times of emergency!

Over the life of her toy drive, Emily has donated over 12,000 toys to the following hospitals and children's organizations:

Good Samaritan Hospital
Stony Brook University Hospital
Cohen Children's Medical Center
NYU Langone Hospital - Long Island
Mount Sinai South Nassau
Memorial Sloan Kettering Hospital
The Ronald McDonald House
Make-A-Wish
The John Thissen Foundation
Angela's House
Birthday Wishes

While her endeavor started out as a holiday drive, Emily is proudly donating toys, books, puzzles, stuffed animals and games ALL YEAR ROUND!

During hospitalization, play is proven to be of high therapeutic value for ill children, thus contributing to both their physical and emotional well-being and to their recovery.

The use and availability of toys in a hospital setting is so important as they are commonly used for:

- ★ personal enjoyment
- ★ to combat boredom
- ★ to encourage normalization
- ★ to facilitate expression
- ★ to help cope with and combat fears
- ★ to achieve healthcare goals.
