

I HAVE AN IDEA FOR AN ACTIVITY, NEW MINISTRY, EVENT OR HANDS-ON-WORSHIP OUTING.... WHAT DO I DO NOW?

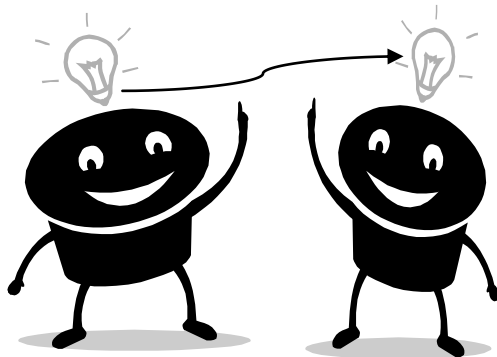

- ❖ After you have prayed about your idea, the next step is to CONTACT AN RBC MINISTRY CLUSTER FACILITATOR. We have six facilitators elected from our congregation, all of whom serve on our Leadership Council and are available to help facilitate your proposal!
- ❖ DECIDE WHICH MINISTRY AREA IS THE BEST FIT FOR YOUR IDEA. We know it may fit more than one, but no matter who you talk to, they'll be glad to work with you to share or develop your idea. (You can find out more about the areas covered by each facilitator by checking our RBC website at www.rbcabc.org).
  - Administrative Support/ Building/Grounds related—Dave Messer
  - Education and spiritual formation for children and adults—Millie Collins
  - Spiritual Growth & Caring/Fellowship related —Robin Sexto
  - Wider Mission and Local Outreach (includes Hands-On-Worship)—Reid Trulson
  - Worship related—Janelle Trulson
  - Youth-related—Allison Fisher
- ❖ THE MINISTRY FACILITATOR WILL HELP YOU FIGURE OUT THE APPROPRIATE NEXT BEST STEPS.
  - Does the idea fit in with RBC's vision and mission? Is there already ongoing work you could join? Are there others in RBC with a similar passion or compatible gifts? Facilitators can help you connect with individuals or groups already involved in a similar area.
  - Facilitators can let you know if there is money in the budget that could be used for your idea/vision.
  - Facilitators will also tell you if they think the idea needs to go to the Leadership Council before moving forward. Many times this will not be needed, but if it is they can often help you think through questions that need to be answered before presenting this idea to others.
  - Finally, facilitators can suggest ways to get your idea out to the wider church family.
