Marilyn Harper is known internationally as “the Divine Link” for Adironnda and the Council of Light. While touring the planet delivering to large audiences the loving messages of Adironnda (a Spokes Being of the Council, from the 17th Dimension), Marilyn met Tom Ledder. He gifted her with a selenite sword of light. As she picked it up Sekhmet, the Goddess of Creation and Destruction, immediately came through and began to use the sword as a healing amplifier on hundreds of people all at once. Known as the “Selenite Swordmaker”, Tom has been producing powerful selenite swords and teaching sword workshops all over the planet. Ten years ago, while observing an energy worker using a piece of selenite crystal on a man's leg, he was inspired to create the swords. He watched as the selenite crystal projected a stream of light into the leg, repairing the injury immediately on an energetic level. From that moment on he dedicated his life to researching, downloading, and creating a tool that would accelerate and maximize the true power of selenite, even more so that what he had witnessed on that day.
