

November 2019 Newsletter

The children have enjoyed our little Halloween 'celebration', painting and drawing pumpkins, cauldrons and witches, scrapping and carving pumpkins, having spooky tattoos and playing trick or treat games.

Parents Meetings

We hope you will all enjoy meeting your keyperson and learning how your child is progressing and making friends. A Slip will be coming out this week to confirm individual date and times.

To continue our learning about wildlife and in particular hedgehogs, we are lucky enough to have Folly Wildlife visit us on Mon 18th Nov. We hope the children will enjoy the visit as they are bringing us a hedgehog to meet

Christmas Stocking Fund-raisers

We will be selling our very own special reindeer food for the children to sprinkle on Christmas Eve for £2.50 each

Hand-made hot chocolate cones with marshmallows £2.50 each

Cinnamon scented playdoh kits together with a cutter. Make your own festive playdoh. £2.50 each

Borrowed Clothes

Should your child have an accident or soil their clothes whilst at pre-school, we change them into a fresh set. Unfortunately, many families have failed to return them. Please, if you have any of the preschool clothes could you return them as soon as possible
