Spiritual Gifts for Catholics Retreat/Workshop

June 2, 7:30-9 p.m. and
June 3, 9:30 a.m. -Noon
St. Katharine Drexel Parish

In his letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul tells us, "Now concerning spiritual gifts, I do not want you to be uninformed. There are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit who empowers them all in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good." (1 Cor 12:1, 7)

St. Paul calls these manifestations "your spiritual gifts." The church calls them "your charisms." Do you want to know what charisms the Lord has given to you? To those in your family? To your friends?

St. Katharine Drexel Church invites you to join us for a Charism Retreat/Workshop where you will complete the "Charism Inventory for Catholics" and then interpret your results to discover your charisms. Please join us on Friday, June 2 from 7:30 pm to 9 pm and Saturday, June 3 from 9:30 am to noon at St. Katharine Drexel Parish Hall. Come and learn what charisms the Lord has made arise in you. For more information, please contact Renee Marazon at (419) 343-1604 or renee@marazon.com.

Pope Francis tells us that we cannot understand on our own which charisms we have. The gifts of the Spirit flow and flourish in community and it is in the heart of the community that we learn to recognize them as signs of God's love. Pope Francis challenges us to ask ourselves, "Is there some Charism that the Lord has made arise in me and which others in my life have recognized and encouraged me?" Come find out on June 2 and 3 at St. Katharine Drexel.

"The Holy Spirit gives to one the gift of wisdom, to another knowledge, discernment of spirits, helps, service, healing, intercession, prophecy, mercy, music, teaching" (1 Cor 12:8-10).

The word charism or charisma (from Gr. χάρισμα) denotes a gift freely and graciously given, a favor bestowed, a grace.

21 de mayo de 2017 • Sexto Domingo de Pascua

Cada una de las lecturas describen un tiempo de transición e incertidumbre. En los Hechos, los apóstoles están aprendiendo cómo responder a quienes buscan compartir la alegría de sanar a los enfermos y exorcizar espíritus impuros. En la primera carta de Pedro, la nueva comunidad cristiana se le recuerda que ellos serán calumniados. Su respuesta a ese sufrimiento está formada en el ejemplo de Jesús de su gentileza y reverencia. Los evangelios ofrecen las palabras de consuelo de Jesús a quienes están quedándose atrás. A todos quienes han perdido a Jesús ya en la crucifixión deben prepararse para perderlo una vez más. Pero esta vez a ellos se les promete que no serán abandonados. Ellos se quedan con la promesa que los nuevos mandamientos de Jesús son una continua guía a una vida que, por medio de la muerte y resurrección, une a quienes creen en Jesús, en el Padre y en el Espíritu.

GUARDA MIS MANDAMIENTOS

Si guardar los mandamientos de Jesús es la clave para amarlo, ser amado por el Padre y acompañado por el Espíritu, entonces ¿qué elección tenemos para guardar sus mandamientos? Parece simple, pero a diferencia de los mandamientos con que Moisés bajó de la montaña, Jesús no nos dejó con diez normas de conducta que guíen nuestras acciones. Jesús nos dejó con un mandamiento mucho más complicado, amar a nuestros enemigos como a nosotros mismos. Este mandamiento requiere que nosotros primero nos amemos como Jesús nos amó. Nosotros debemos ver en nosotros mismos lo que Jesús vio en cada uno de nosotros. Jesús vio que también nosotros estamos hechos a imagen y semejanza de Dios y que llevamos con nosotros la fragilidad de nuestra humanidad. Nosotros debemos ver la misma devoción y humanidad en cada persona que encontramos en nuestro camino. No es solo que nosotros mismos veamos en el rostro de nuestra familia, amigos, conocidos y extraños. Es el rostro de Dios. Debemos comportarnos a la altura.

MAY 21, 2017 - SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

PEOPLE OF HOPE

Throughout this Easter season the readings have drawn us into the experience of the early church. We have tasted the excitement and zeal of the first Christians. Now, with them, we listen to the words of Saint Peter, who reminds us that when people notice that we are people of hope, we should be ready to explain why. This challenges us. Do others even notice that we are people of hope? In a world often marked by cynicism and hopelessness, do we stand out as people who offer hope and reassurance to others? In today's Gospel Jesus promises that when he leaves the earth he will not leave us orphaned. Today he promises to send his Advocate, the Spirit of truth who will be with us always. Let us acknowledge the presence of the Holy Spirit and ask the Spirit to make us people of hope.

TODAY'S READINGS

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The custom of genuflection is not found everywhere in the Catholic Church. In fact, it is a bit of breach of etiquette to genuflect in most Eastern Catholic Churches. If you're visiting an Eastern Catholic or an Orthodox church, the "when in Rome" rule should be adopted. Watch what the home team is doing! Usually, Eastern Catholics and Orthodox reserve a small portion of the eucharistic bread for the dying in a cupboard or eucharistic dove, but it is not a center of attention or devotion. The rule is to make a profound bow, called a "metasis," toward the altar—bowing deeply while making the sign of the cross.

East and West split years before we Westerners began to reserve the Blessed Sacrament prominently in our churches. Thus, the East never changed the original custom of bowing toward the altar. Increasingly, as tabernacles became more widespread in the West and moved into prominent placement within churches, we replaced the bow toward the altar with a genuflection toward the Blessed Sacrament when its place of reservation is visible.

In a church where the Blessed Sacrament is reserved in a special chapel or off the main axis of the building, normally you should bow toward the altar when you enter your pew, because the eucharistic table is the principal sign of Christ's presence in the church building. If you have ever participated in the liturgy of Dedication of a Church and Altar, there is no mistaking the altar's significance: it is first slathered with chrism and then adorned with a brazier billowing clouds of incense that fill the whole church as a sign of prayer and presence!
