TEA & SCONES IN HISTORIC URBAN B&B WITH STOP AT EASTERN MARKET

When thinking about tea parties, do you find yourself overwhelmed with thoughts of the British gentry, scenes from Alice in Wonderland, Victorian decor, blue haired ladies and pinky fingers stuck up in the air? If so, you're both right and wrong. You're right because as the tradition of "Afternoon" Tea has developed over time, it has become an elegant affair. You're wrong because "High" Tea was often enjoyed by the British working class as their evening supper, with heartier fare than the tea sandwiches and scones that are now associated with tea parties.

Quite the treat for everyone. See this historic B&B where we'll have lunch. You'll gasp at the location and the extraordinary décor of the Inn at this fabulous urban bed & breakfast in the "D". After, we explore a very historic street where all the who's who lived and dined. There'll be an hour plus stop at the Eastern Market. the mimosas are on your own. Surprise wine tasting at a historic urban Detroit winery. We look forward to a fabulous day together. $80 per person.
