

Code of Conduct

All ECORA members are required to:

- * Uphold the Association's core values of respect, transparency, fun, courage and commitment.
- * Be aware of, and abide by, the rules, guidelines, laws and regulations of ECORA.
- * Refrain from any behavior that may bring ECORA clubs, sponsors or outrigger canoeing in general, into disrepute.
- * Respect all outrigger canoe paddlers regardless of their age, gender, ability, sexual orientation, cultural background or religion and have proper regard for their dignity, rights and obligations.
- * Respect, support and assist the elected Board of ECORA and their delegates as they work to provide the greatest benefits and opportunities to the greatest number of members.
- * Refrain from any form of harassment and/or abuse towards ECORA Board members, and all outrigger canoe paddlers, coaches and/or officials.
- * Be ethical, fair and honest in your dealings with other ECORA members.
- * Report any concerns or queries regarding another member's conduct directly to the ECORA Board.
