Meeting called to order at 8:15 pm by President Charlie Gibbs
Pledge of Allegiance done
June minutes read by Patricia J Abare, Sec't and accepted
Mary Meneilly absent so no Treasurer's report

Sick and ailing: reported that William Murphy and wife Annie are both in the skilled nursing facility. Also, In checking our Sr members there is one, Bill Christy that I can not contact. If anyone out there knows him let me know, please.

Club Use: July 31st – Charles Loughnot – Gathering – all open
August 6th – the NorthShore Seniors
Sept 11th --- Fall Feast, 12 noon until 6 pm – Chinese auction with items donated by the membership only. Due to the epidemic, it was not a good idea to go around to establishments this year. Bonnie is sewing up another quilt to raffle also.

Fall Raffle – Mark doing well with tickets

Club grounds: Harry – mower has been repaired and working fine.

Gun Range: Terry – some boards (3 boards high) have been placed as planned.

Scholarship: recipient, Emily Schlueter, sent a very nice thank you for selecting her and brief summary of her plans.

DEC Camp for kids: camps remain closed due to virus

Conservation reports by Charlie: very interesting re: fish and wildlife, Salmon River fishermen report about average catch, and the Gypsy Moths have returned in many areas to satisfy their hunger.

Forester Robert Cole stated some areas are in their second year of what is normally a three-year period of defoliation, while others are in their first. Infestations generally occur every 10 to 15 years.

The topic of wearing ORANGE or not during hunting season, was put to a vote of the membership present. There were interesting and varied views and opinions voiced.

If anyone is interested in reading the latest in any of these topics and more, the Outdoor News is the paper to get.

One new member Application presented: There are 9 on the waiting list now.

Meeting adjourned 9PM

Respectfully submitted

Patricia J Abare

Addendum: Bill Murphy has been a member of our club since 1972. He is using a walker and Annie is in a wheelchair.

Their Address is The Cottages at Garden Grove, 5460 Meltzer Court, Cicero, NY, 13039
