LONDONDERRY AIR

Folk Tune - Rory Dall O'Cahan

Would God I were the tender apple blossom that floats and falls from off the twisted bough to lie and faint with in your silk-en blossom with in your silk-en blossom, as that does now. Or would I were a little burnished apple for you to pluck me, gliding by so cold While sun and shade your robe of lawn will dapple Your robe of lawn and your hair's-spun gold. Yea, would to God I were among the roses That lean to kiss you as you float between While on the lowest branch a bud un-clothes A bud un-clothes, to touch you, my queen. Nay, since you will not love, would I were growing A happy day, in the garden path That so your silver foot might press me going Might press me going even unto death.

THE THINGS I LOVE

The glow of sun-set in the sum-mer skies, The gold-en flick-er of the fire - flies

The gleam of love-light in your love-ly eyes These are the things I love.

A sil-ver moon-beam peep-ing thru the trees, A bed of tu-lips nod-ding in the breeze,

The look you give in ans-er to my pleas These are the things I love. Oh,

Once I thought that life was just a win - ter thing, My heart was cold, and then you came to me and like a breath of spring You turned the sil-ver snow to gold.

A rob-in's ser-e-nade when day is thru, The bab-bling brook be-side our ren-dez-vous,

Your sweet voice whisp'-ring "Dar-ling I love you" These are the things I love.

A rob-in's ser-e-nade when day is thru, The bab-bling brook be-side our ren-dez-vous,

Your sweet voice whisp'-ring "Dar-ling I love you" These are the things I love.
