“May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, O LORD, my Rock and my Redeemer.” Psalm 19:14

A scenic landscape featuring a calm lake in the foreground, a lush green forest on a hillside in the middle ground, and a small white gazebo nestled among the trees. The sky is a clear, vibrant blue. The entire scene is framed by a dark blue border.

PSALMS

Help us,
O God our Savior,
for the glory
of your name;
deliver us
and forgive
our sins for your name's sake.

Psalm 60:1

Restore us! Help us, Lord!

A prayer for national crisis

The Psalm 83 War

Psalm 83:1-4 says:

O God, do not remain quiet;

Do not be silent and, O God, do not be still.

For behold, Your enemies make an uproar,

Those who hate You have exalted themselves.

They make shrewd plans against Your people,

And conspire together against Your treasured ones.

They have said, "Come, let us wipe them out as a nation, that the name of Israel be remembered no more."

A Prayer for Peace & Prosperity Psalm 85

Reflects Times of National Crisis.

A Lamentation vs. "A Lament"

Psalm 85

"A lamentation (or dirge) is suitable in a situation that cannot be changed; i.e., death of someone or the destruction of a city.

A Lament presupposes that a situation of distress can be changed if and when God intervenes."

Bernhard Anderson,
Understanding the Old Testament, Prentice-Hall, 1986

Truly, truly, I say to you, you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will turn into joy.

- John 16:20

9. THE IMMIGRANT'S FATE IS EVERYONE'S

“My American opens its arms to the world rather than sells the worlds its arms. My America has a capacious hunger and the humility to wonder if it is right. My America speaks many languages and knows when to hold its tongue. But I know that another America exists, a more fearful and dangerous one. If that America wins, then we and the world lose.”

Viet Thanh Nguyen, The 2016 Pulitzer Prize winner with his Novel, The Sympathizer.
