

SUNDAY MORNING
meditation

When Jesus instituted the Lord's Supper, He said, "Do this in remembrance of me" (I Cor. 11:24). How well He understood us when He gave this loving exhortation! It would seem impossible for us to forget the One who is everything to us? How is it possible for us who have "eternal redemption" (Heb. 9:12) through His blood to forget Him for a single moment? And yet sad experience tells us that it's all too possible. Not just possible, but a lamentable fact! Doesn't our conscience tell us it happens? In the bustle and business of life we easily forget the One who never forgets us, and let other things occupy His rightful place in our thoughts. What a blessed thing it is, then, for us to refocus our minds and hearts on Him and His sacrifice every week! May this blessed reminder never become to us a mere routine religious duty. All for Jesus, Richard
