†SAINTS/FEASTS OF THE WEEK†

Sept 3-St. Gregory the Great—The Gregory was the prefect of Rome before he was 30. After five years in office he resigned, founded six monasteries on his Sicilian estate, and became a Benedictine monk in his own home at Rome. Ordained a priest, Gregory became one of the pope's seven deacons, and also served six years in the East as papal representative in Constantinople. He was recalled to become abbot, but at the age of 50 was elected pope by the clergy and people of Rome. Gregory was direct and firm. He removed unworthy priests from office, forbade taking money for many services, emptied the papal treasury to ransom prisoners of the Lombards and to care for persecuted Jews and the victims of plague and famine. He was very concerned about the conversion of England, sending 40 monks from his own monastery. He is known for his reform of the liturgy, and for strengthening respect for doctrine. Whether he was largely responsible for the revision of "Gregorian" chant is disputed. - www.franciscanmedia.org

Sept 5-St. Teresa of Kolkata—Commonly known as Mother Teresa, St. Teresa was an Albanian-Indian Roman Catholic nun and missionary and worked tirelessly for the poor. Her love and care of the poor, the dying, orphans, alcoholics and street people helped her to be acknowledged with the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979.

PLEASE NOTE

We will return to our regular Mass schedule NEXT weekend, September 7-8 as follows:

Prayer for Safety In Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children.

The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea.

We live in the shadow of a danger
 over which we have no control:

the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant,
 can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep
 its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You,
 O loving Father.

Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

WHY DO WE LIGHT VOTIVE CANDLES?

"With the light of faith, we petition our Lord in prayer, or petition the saint for intercession—to pray with us and for us to the Lord. The light also shows a special reverence and our desire to remain present to the Lord in prayer even though we may depart and go about our daily business."

-www.saintpats.org

If you have a special intention or prayer, consider lighting one of our electronic votive candles in the rear of the Church. A small donation ($1 suggested) is requested to help defray costs.

A PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Lord Jesus, you have chosen your priests from among us and sent them out to proclaim your word and act in your name. For so great a gift to your Church, we give you praise and thanksgiving. We ask you to fill them with the fire of your love, that their ministry may reveal your presence in the Church. Since they are earthen vessels, we pray that your power shines out through their weakness. In their afflictions let them never be crushed, in their doubts never despair, in temptation never be destroyed, and in persecution never abandoned. Inspire them through prayer to live each day the mystery of your dying and rising. In times of weakness send them your Spirit and help them to praise your Heavenly Father and pray for poor sinners. By your same Holy Spirit put your word on their lips and your love in their hearts, to bring good news to the poor and healing to the broken-hearted. And may the gift of Mary, your Mother, to the disciple whom you loved, be your gift to every priest. Grant that she who formed you in her human image, may form them in your divine image, by the power of your spirit, to the glory of God the Father, Amen.

CUANDO DES UN BANQUETE,
INVITA A LAS POBRES, A LOS LISIADOS,
A LOS COJOS Y A LOS CIEGOS

1º de septiembre de 2019 • Vigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Muchos pensadores destacados en la Iglesia se vienen dedicando al estudio de la humildad. Santos como Agustín, Tomás de Aquino y Teresa de Ávila nos ayudan a apreciar la esencia de la humildad. Fundamentalmente, la humildad acepta la verdad sencilla que Dios crea todo, y provee todo aquella que nosotros sus creaturas necesitamos.

La humildad, entonces, es la fe aplicada a la vida diaria. Si soy creado en la misma imagen que Dios, y si la meta de mi vida es unirme con Dios en el paraíso, entonces Dios desea solo el paraíso para mí. Hablando de manera práctica, eso significa todo el día, cada día, Dios proveerá solo exactamente lo que yo necesito para crecer en santidad. Además, Dios hace esto por mí tanto como lo haría por otra creatura en la tierra. Todos los dones y talentos que tenemos vienen de Dios y todo lo que vemos como una falla o una debilidad nunca podría estar más allá de la redención poderosa de Dios.

EN DIOS CONFIAMOS

La humildad requiere que confiemos en Dios para darnos todo lo que necesitamos para vivir esta vida de tal manera que vivamos por siempre en el paraíso. Este nivel de confianza en la providencia de Dios es un don, y requiere tiempo cultivarlo.

Poco a poco, si nosotros de verdad, profundamente sabemos que Dios quiere darnos el cielo, entonces las dificultades comunes pierden mucha de su fuerza por desconcertarnos. Con humildad, podemos dejar que alguien tome la última galleta. Con humildad, podemos alegrarnos por la promoción de un compañero de trabajo. Con humildad, podemos arreglar un desorden que no hicimos. Podemos aceptar lo incompleto, la exclusión y el sacrificio debido a la absoluta certeza de que solo Dios provee lo que necesitamos. El mismo Jesús nos pide elegir esta humilde forma de vida. Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy dice: “el que se engrandece a sí mismo, será humillado; y el que se humilla, será engrandecido”. Esa expresión no es poesía retórica. Jesús realmente quiere decir que la humildad cambia nuestra vida. Él nos desafía a “invitar a los pobres, a los lisiados, a los cojos y a los ciegos; y así serás dichoso, porque ellos no tienen con qué pagarte; pero ya se te pagará, cuando resuciten los justos”.

Prayer of Adoration of the Eucharist

My Lord Jesus Christ, I adore you in all the tabernacles of the world. I offer you my life in reparation for the sins against the Blessed Sacrament, the unworthy communions, disrespect, lack of reverence in your churches and countless other sins against your most Holy Body and Blood. Please, my Lord, increase my faith in your Eucharistic presence so that my devotion may be fanned into a flame of love of you and that I may go into the world to proclaim your kingdom. I ask this of your mercy in your Holy Name. AMEN

HUMILITY

Humility is a virtue we don't see much in our times. It seems that bragging, swaggering, and arrogance dominate our fashion for everything and our Internet conversations. Who hasn't been irritated by the "trolls" who try (usually with bad grammar and poor spelling) to start an online fight with those whose opinions do not align with theirs? Our stores, catalogs, and online shopping sites are full of useless items geared in use and price to the very rich, as ordinary, useful things seem to fade off the sales scene. As the rich get richer, the poor get poorer and the middle class is fading away. What is the antidote to this? Humility is a good place to start. Devotion to God is worth more than riches. "The father of orphans and the defender of widows is God in his holy dwelling. God gives a home to the forsaken; [God] leads forth prisoners to prosperity." Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

NO SURPRISES

We are told by all spiritual writers that one important point to bear in mind, as we seek to attain humility, is not to be surprised by our own faults and failures.—François Fénelon

The humble shall be

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The readings today center on mindfulness, awareness of where we stand in God's plan. The mountain of Sinai carries a message of the majesty and distance of God, while Jesus' presence as host of the banquet speaks of intimacy and mystery. September's shadow calls us all to mindfulness as we prepare to return to life outside of summer. The Christian life holds these two places of knowledge of God in careful balance. Even in the accounts of the Passion we see the table of the upper room in balance with the Mount of Olives.

Altar means "high place," yet it is also a table. The former liturgy of the Latin Rite began with the priest bowing at the foot of the altar's three steps, chanting Introibo ad altare Dei, or "I will go to the altar of God," followed by the altar servers' response, "The God who gives joy to my youth." Many parishioners can recall and recite this scene by heart. As with so many things in liturgy, there are layers of meaning in our worship. The altar table evokes memories of the high places once reserved for encounter with the holy, and the intimacy of the table where hospitality draws us to share food and drink.—James Field, Copyright © J.
