“Michael possesses superior intelligence. He has a work ethic that will guarantee success. This scholarship would be an investment that would be guaranteed to pay off for the community and for him personally.” David Roy - Teacher

“I am very appreciative of the support given by both the Anchor Scholarship Foundation and its donors and sponsors. If it were not for them and their contributions to aiding educations, my educational journey and the journey of so many other students would be significantly more difficult. I would like to thank them for all that they have done to help me and others achieve our educational dreams and aspirations.” Michael
