November 10, 2016

Allison called the meeting to order
Bill Oakley rendered the Blessing
Worth led the Pledge

Concerns: No concerns today. We are a healthy bunch!

Birthdays: Rouse Kissell Nov. 10.

Guests: Buck Pickett brought a friend, Jean Senter.

Duke Concession: Joe Parker talked about Duke Football.
Tonight is the final game. Last week one stand made $1848 and the other made $5964. Joe hopes that will help make up for the Hurricane Matthew game when we made less than $60.

Mike Williams said there are two games this week, Friday and Saturday. He is in need of help on Nov. 23. There are only two games in December - the third and 19th.

Allison said the women's games have been slow.

Area IV meeting will be a Christmas Social, Fun and Fellowship!
There is no cost and we will meet at Friendly City Civitan Clubhouse on Tuesday, Dec. 6 at 6:00. Please wear your wackiest tackiest Christmas sweater. Marlene is asking that members bring finger foods, so please let her know what you plan to bring.

Door Prizes: Buck Pickett, Ernest Ferrell, Marlene Jewell, Helen Featherson, Charlie Rigsbee.

Queen of Hearts: $37 Jean Senter - did not win.

Bill Oakley introduced our speaker, Helen Featerson with Retired and Senior Volunteer Programs. Helen told us of various volunteer opportunities such as in the Schools, Day Care, Senior Pharm Assist, Meals on Wheels, HELP, Salvation Army and many more.
