Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying,
 “Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?”
 “Here I am, “I said, “send me!”
 — Isaiah 6:8

A Note from Fr. Conoboy

Dear Parishioners,
 I recently had some conversations with parishioners who shared with me a little about their lives. I look forward to such conversations because your stories, struggles, and successes all help me to serve you better. We each have so much that goes on in our lives, and I am privileged to be able to help bring faith into our many life experiences. I thought that I would also share with you a little about what I am doing. As you know, I am splitting my responsibility of required work, that is, all but the dissertation. I still have a few chapters to write. So, each day, I try to carve out some time to work on this project. My dissertation is centered on the understanding of the human person (anthropology) articulated by St. John Paul II, especially in his “Theology of the Body.”

A number of you ask about my work and express your prayers and support for me to complete it. I am grateful for that.

God bless you,
 Fr. Shawn Conoboy

Stewardship- “Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, ‘Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?’ ‘Here I am,’ I said, ‘send me!’” (ISAIAH 6:8)

Every day, in little ways and in big ways, God asks, “Whom shall I send?” Whether it is someone to take on a new ministry, to give a friendly smile to a stranger or say a word of encouragement to a friend, God constantly provides opportunities to help someone in need. The next time you hear God calling, have the courage to walk through the door and say “Here I am, Lord.”

The Sanctuary Lamp at St. Mary & St. Joseph is burning for: Parishioners

Please, pray for all members serving in our Armed Forces. May God watch over them and grant that they may return home safely and soon:

A Prayer for those in the Military
 Almighty God, We stand before you in supplication,
 Asking Your Divine mercy and protection,
 To envelop with Your invincible armor,
 Our loved ones in all branches of the service.
 Give them courage and strength.
 Against all enemies, Both spiritual and physical,
 And hasten their safe journey,
 Back to their homes and families.
 If it be Your Holy Will That they be gathered to Your bosom,
 With the eternal vanguard of the saints,
 Let their journey to Your everlasting arms.
 Be swift and painless,
 Where they may stand in honor and glory,
 Praising You for all eternity. Amen

Food Pantry

Even with the cold and snow, we had 113 residents come Saturday to the pantry. Thank you for all your help.
